TO THE COUNTRY. BIX MONTHS ONE MONTH.

hotice to Mail Subscribers.

subser, bers are supplied with a notice of the da'e their subscription will expire ten days in ad-Yar co of the time; and again with a second notice on the day the last copy paid for is sent. This

LES FEMMES. Par ALPHONSE KARR. Paris. We have just received the above volume, serves to be held up to universal execuation. pins and reedies, cramped in erinoline. in a gay and cheerful mood. What if Secrates said it would be more tol- in the case of widows. lived with a dragon? Besides, Socrates, ance of the hair beneath the widow's csp. ers of that age, show him to have been a by the dress, which still continues t tippling old drunkard, whose brain-pan ceeds to despair is symbolized by the white would hold a little more Chian wine than crape collar and cuffs. idle fellows as lazy as himself, and doing black silk dress; the widow's cap is still nothing to provide his wife with a decent worn.

wouldn't be bad now-a-days. But we are leaving Mr. Karr. He opens with an abominable little French epigram, dress; the sufferer less feels the loss than of with we give the following free trans- the actual deprivations of a husband. lation:

Wien Ada waking fret his life unfolds In Eden cover, beside win he beholds to a of h bor Ach a feeth, and knows if searche ' | h | last repose.

as that? Does he des re any mercy, any young friend of his who had lost an old husrepose? Would a creain lecture every night, underdone meat every day, and house-cleaning all the week, be too severe control of the life, the travels and the sufferings of "Little Nell" fail to leave the heart purer? Was any one ever any warm for heart purer? for one who could thus belie the fair sex?

We leave him to their just vengeance. Mr. Karr ridicules their fashions to the herself up to despair, and take care to look utmost, and criticises their taste in all they as though you believed it was law and euswear, with the acumen of a mantuamaker. Rising then with his subject, he places the alliance between the dress and the woman as perfect. He says:

Dress is the great business of all wo men, and the fixed idea of some. Thus every event in their lives has a change of common to see ladies in all the grales of dress for its result, and often for its cause. In this way gowns divide a woman's existence into an infinite number of eras and hegiras. "Such a thing happened at the of mourners, can tell the exact period that they are, and find one that does not leave time when I had my purple velvet dress; has elapsed, or ought to have elapsed, since him happier and better? such another when I bought my pink satia." To mark important events more precisely, you hear, "The first time he saw me I was dressed in blue." When girls do not marry solely for the purpose of putting on the wedding costume, you may still be certain that it does, in some degree, influence their minds. Mr. — never would have been fair sex. In commenting upon the age of accepted if his wife had thought only of women, he says: , but a vail and orange flower wreath, which suits a bride so well, cannot be worn, excepting on the wedding-day, and, in order to marry, a husband is required: so he persons whom she will one day resemble. der to marry, a husband is required: so no is taken as an accessory, just in the same way as carriages are hired. Many would young and old women are two entirely dif-very likely prefer to be married without a ferent species, black and white, and that prefer to be married without a husband, but that is not the custom.

that it is of French women he speaks. We number of years out of the mysterious sum know that no such declarations as he has allotted to each; no, to be old is to have lost here laid down have any application in our all beauty, to possess no longer the power country. If he did, we would favor the immmediate calling of a Woman's Rights Conspecting their age. It is much more a vention in some of the New England States, piece of absurdity on the part of men to whose business it should be to marry him eeal it. It is very well to ask the age of a to the crossest and ugliest of the lot.

of habits and conversation in l'aris, upon what is here deemed a melancholy occasion. which we transfer to our columns:

Madame has just lost a relative; her grief is profound, but it will soon be by the necessity of providing . "What is most worn this year, what is the most fashionable kind of mourning?" The milliner must be visited, the dressmaker and the drapers; this is done alone. All sorrow quickly disappears be-neath the load of cares about dress; the When properly attired, Madame goes to make a call upon a friend. She says "I hear you have lost your cousin; it must have been a terrible shock to you. . What a lovely bonnet you have on. She was quite young, I believe? Do you still continue to employ

"Yes, she has been my milliner for the last three years.'

"Nothing could possibly suit you better. row."

"At the Sarcophagus. .

left two poor little children.' relation so that she might be able to wear jects, and for a similar reason objections little envious: she would willingly lose a such a charming bonnet; and she says to can be made to all that beautifies and mourning I will buy my dresses at the Sar-cophagus;" and then she passes all her any one amongst them old enough or ill is debasing, or if it is treated in a way that enough to give her any reasonable hope she may soon possess such a beautiful fresh alliance, every friendship, serves as Its evil tendencies. The German writers a pretext for a new dress; a friend gives a and critics say that soon after its publicaball-a new gown; she marries-a new gown; she dies-a new gown; and so on, tion the wild young German students fre-

This subject of mourning is an interest- desperate bravery, to add that these valiant found in Wincooki river.

ing one with the author. He dwells upon hero bands were broken up, not by soldiers, it in its various lights and shades. Having but the hard winters, which sent them shown us, as above, the manner in which a shivering to their homes or to the gallows. TERMS OF THE DAILY DEMOCRAT | loss is treated; the light and trivial con-versation that follows, he takes us to the "Panl Clifford" and the like trash novels, Muison de Mode, and shows us the fashionable filled with false philosophy and false mo-$10.00 rules of mourning. How grief is divided rality, are worthy of nothing but condem-6 00 out by intervals towards it, gradual allevia- nation, and the readers of them have not tion, until finally, like the tree, deso- the plea the transcendent genius of Schillate in winter, it puts forth its delicate leaves in spring, and in summer glows with harvest:

We find it in the practices and customs will enable all porsone to keep the ran of their so counts, and to renew in time not to miss an issue sons whom we love, or whom it is supposed the healthy instruction of such lighter and to renew in time not to miss an issue to be our duty to love.

tempted to believe that it has been necessary to give to grief, either permitted or propwhich contains some thiags about the fair which all manifestations shall be declared sex-in France-for which the author de- to be in bad taste. It has been equally the comicalities of Aristophanes and felt ugreed upon, that those who shall scrupulously observe certain simple and easy We have used up all the expletives, not de-practices, shall be considered to experience a dramas. Can we not fancy, in the honro cidedly profane, in characterizing some of the statements of this uncivil French gentleman; and now that he may be still further and notably punished, we propose to the morning of the 47 lst day [and the charge and six weeks [a man only mourns his wife six months]—that is to say, the widow on the morning of the 47 lst day [and the charge and six weeks [a man only mourns his wife six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that is to say, the widow on the magical ointment to change six months]—that i gibbet him, that he may be proctured with widower on the dawn of the 181st] awakes an ase? Can the noble, eccentric charac-Gricf divides itself into several periods erable to live with a dragon than a woman, 1st period. Despair, six weeks. This as Mr. Karr avers? Ilad Focrates ever period is known by a black paramatta dress, crspe collar and cuffs, and the disappear we boldly assert, was a humbug of the first 2d period. Profound grief. Despondency, water. Don't his own disciples, and writ-anybody's else? and the best that is said of him shows him to have been an idle old the regretted chief of him shows him to have been an idle old the regretted chief of him shows him to have been an idle old the regretted chief of him affections. vagabond, loafing around in dirfy, ragged better world. These melancholy sentiments elothes, asking fooiish questions of a lot of last six months; they are expressed by a hearted, prejudiced gentleman than Colonel 4th period. Time heals the wounds of the dress to her back. Nobody has ever heard heart. Providence tempers the east wind Mrs. Nantippe say which she would to the shorn lamb. Violent attacks of grief hood to manhood, and always cheery, pure prefer, a respectable dragon in glittering, only come on at rare intervals. Sometimes the widow seems as though she had forgotgolden scales, or dirty, ragged old Soc. If ten her lose, but all at once a circumstance, he didn't like it, why didn't his lazy old apparently indifferent, recalls it, and she ler-rolicking, frelicking Dick-with all legs earry his lazy old body out of Athens? falls back into grief. Yet she dwells from of his faults (which we would not extensive falls back into grief. We'll bet Mrs. X. S. wouldn't have followed but it is only to contrast them with his dazhim. The way the fellow died shows his zling virtues. This period would be tirecharacter. He was made to take a bowl of some enough for the world at large, therehemlock for being such an intolerable old fore it has been decided to express it simply by half mourning.

bore and nuisance. A little hemlock water 5th period. There is now only a softened melancholy, which will last all her life-i , eix weeks. This touching and gracefu sentiment shows itself by a quiet gray silk

When any lady loses her husbard, it is requisite, either to pay here visit of condolence, or to address a letter to her. It is ustomary in these eases to make use of such language as admits the probability of society through a key-hole," a blessing on What ought to be done with a man who the greatest possible grief, that of Arte" them both, and feel better for having known misia, for example. Fontenelle, however, would perpurate such an atrocious thing thought proper to send a blank letter to a Therefore, when quite contrary to eustom. a widow loses an old availcious husband, from whom she inherits a large fortune, you ought not the less to entreat her not to give tom alone which prevented her from burying herself with him.

somewhere that this thing of showing as- with absurd views of this world and the suaged grief, as by a tape measure, is not confined to the French; that it is very the habiliments of woe, and that a lady demned? Who can read his wonderful nov skilled in the art, on leaving a church full els and romances, numerons and varied as the departure of each regretted spirit gone

when we will hand Monsieur Alphonse Karr over to the deserved vengeance of the

Listen to a woman of twenty speaking of old women; she does not talk of them as she belongs to the young, just as she does to the white. But what, after all, is it to Isn't that savage? It is lucky for him be old? It is not to have spent a certain woman whom we have not seen, because it The author then gives us some pictures gives one some sort of a criterion, a very indifferent one often, by which to form con jectures as to her personal charms, but it is perfectly useless to ask a woman's age after you have once seen her, and can judge what she really is, instead of what she pre-There is a truth in the last of this. No one has the right to ask the age of a lady;

it is pure impertinence. Of whatever truth there may be in this, s with less scruple now that shops have been far as it is a matter of censure, it is not the opened for the sale of articles of mourning woman, but the man, who is to blame. The woman, but the man, who is to blame. The former, by their nature, are created to only anxiety is whether the bonnet should please; and if the methods they adopt suctoo small or the gown too short. But it eeed best in pleasing, who is the most to is seldom an accident of this kind happens. blame? As this is her nature, it should

There exists in many minds a prejudice against works of fiction. They are looked upon as the bane of youth, a fountain from which flows perennial streams of depravity. That there is much reason for this it would be useless to deny. Much in the fictitious literature of the day, and more of the past, was of such a licentions char-"I loved her like a sister. She has left a acter as to muddy the purest mind, espe-"It is beautiful. Where did you buy it?" strengthened by other and higher moral She has teachings. In the same way the most pure art, the most delightful genius of poetry And Madame's friend begins to feel a and romance, may be bent to debasing obherself, "The first time I have to go into adorns the world, because it may be used relations in review to see whether there is rupt. If the subject and aim of the novel Just in the same way every event, every of "The Robbers" has been condemned for quently formed themselves into roving If that is really the way the distressed bands of robbers, their minds filled with relative takes her affliction in France, we romantic views about the glory of stealing. must confess we can see no advantage a It is rather a ridiculous termination to so Frenchman gains in dying. He had as much romance of moonlit woods, robber caverns filled with glittering wealth and ler throws around his drama. If these should be kept from the hands of blossoms and rejoices in full fruition la the young, and condemned by the old, would it he right also to take from them the ennobling dramas of Shakspeare, the poet the healthy instruction of such "every-day To judge by these customs, we should be preachers' as Dickens and Thackeray? Through all ages romances and playa > have been the cheerer, the consoler and the teacher. The old Greek has roared over his eheck glow over the grand Greek ter of Don Quixote be read er studied by any one without its leaving him a wiser and better man? Or, to come to later times, where is there a better type of a gentle, loving and brave nature, an obscure life with one prevailing fault in it, and even that good, than Uncle Toby, in Tristram Shandy? Or what is more admirable than Mr. Pickwick, whom Dickens must have begun in ridicule to end by falling in love with his own humorous, henest conception, and he painted all his frailties in light? What is a better model of a kind, tender-Newcome, the masterpiece of Thackersy? How well we see the form and character of 'Clive' grow in the same book, from tilldand life-like! Or let us select a different type from these. Let us take Dick Swiveluate), the evil associates who seem to leave no stain on his careless nature, and his pathetic love for Soldy Ciugas-who can read of him without offering him in good fellowship his favorite toast, "May II wing of friendly more and a factor but always be expected as lorened bea any one was said the sharp feel did a to imitate ven w ioves him many limited as the transfer parting with and the "Marchione as, whose early life "was a limited view of them? Or, to select another from the same book, when did ever the tears shed ever Was any one ever any worse for having read the delicate, genial summer stories of Washington Irving; and, wandering with him in the fairy halls of the Alhambra? Ah! it is an education, almost, to read Washington Irving. Will Hawthorne be any more injurious than some cruds tracts This is worth reading, as we have heard thrown out by an idle theological student, next? Hawthorns, whose pure life is mir ored in the gentle and moral teachings o his works. Then, can Walter Scott be con

It is not only such works as these. At one weep the child is robbed of poor Robinson We will give but one more quetation, Crusoe and his man Friday. The Arabian ed to Mrs. Hamilton's leve of display. We I could have remped and frolicked with the and Mother Goose is naknown, as is her childhood of all its falry-like imaginingsand shown to it, in violent red and blue pietures, in childhool.

Those who object to works of action are a precions jewel.

General Washington, in his farewell address to his countrymen, among his words of wisdom, spoke the following:

If, in the opinion of the people, the disibution or modification of the constitutional powers be in any particular wrong, let it be corrected by an amendment, in the But let there be no change by nsurpation; for though this, in one instance, may be the instrument of good, it is the customary weapon by which free governments are destroyed. The precedent must always overbalance in permanent evil any partial or transient benefit which the use can at any

Robert Carr, a printer, now 83 years of before the veterans of 1812, in Philadelphia, on the 4th of July. Col. Carr was an apprentice of Benjamin Franklin. His memory and eyesight are as good as they were fifty years ago, and he still supports himself by manual labor.

26 A country girl, who, coming from the me. I told him that every one in town would and it out,"

For the Louisville Sunday Democrat. TO MISS JOSIE M-N, OF O'BANNON'S, ET.

Come with me to my forest shade, Where, on the breeze-swept grassy glade, The lingering beams of sunset played In rainbow emiles; There sweetly waves the wild bine bell, The wild rose blushes in the delt, And fairy music's gushing swell The heart begutles.

I've dreamed thou art the same fair maid That shared with me the sylvan shade And trod the green and grassy glade, Where murmuring showers Fell from the clouds like April rain, Their tear-drops glistening on the plain. Where summer breezes sighed again

And chased the flowers.

And where the morning's crystal dew Drope from the thietle's "bonnet blue," And fastern skies have caught the hue Of opening day; We'll roam where "winds and water sweep," The pure cool waves shall kies our feet. Where sparkling waters height and sweet

Roll far away. So far away from heants of mea We'll wander as I wandered then, Along the lone sequestered glez, Where songsters gay From every swinging forest spray That bends in beauty o'er our way Shall fling upon the sunny day Some roundelay.

And we will watch the shadows dun That slowly o'er the westering onn, When day's long course is almost run To evening shadow, When mourns the silver throated dove Its plaintive evening hymn of love, When crimson lines of sunset move

Across the meadow,

Fair girl, I would thy life could be A summer day, and cloudlessly, That Joys might ever smile for thee; But cares and foars H'or lack where pleasure most beguiles The tempter lingers with his wiles, And sunny hopes that rise in smiles Oft set in lears.

Yet I will pray that on thy way No clouds shall dim one glittering ray That o'er thy heaven of love doth play In airy lightness; That not a suddened line of care Shall shade thy brow so pure and fair, Or mar the radiant beauty there,

Or dim fie brightness, And when I see thee proudly tread Upon fame's glittering mountain-head, Where echoes reach the valley-bed T so hoary, w girl, shall be, t and be' ht sad free, In gottom group.

the state of the s t pon tife's withered landscape fail In antumn sadness round as all, Then may'et thou be Like some remembered, blue, wild flowers

But waited for autumnal hours To bloom for me. And when upon Time's megatain brow The can of life is setting low, When death's faint twil ght glims

That bloseomed not in sammer bowers,

As the last clouds of closing day Fale 'neath the golden Western ray, So may thy spirit float away In realms of Heaven.

(For the Louisville Sunday Democrat) MANHOOD.

BY ELEASOR.

PART III. Drug thy memory lest thou learn it, lest thy heart pul to proof ad and unhappy night when the rain to the roof!

her. It would have been better for me, and we were promising to return home with better for my young bride, had I not yield-Nights never bring their fairy lands to him, had a handsome house and lived in all the gaiety of those early innocent days. natural gaiety. Let me deal tenderly with raise tears of pleasant memories in after all the wonderful creations that ages have her faults for my own sake. I know she life. I'earl's head lay on my shoulder; gathered, to be erooned to it in the craile, leved me. My honrs of darkness would you, Rachel, sat at my side. come sometimes, but, thank Heaveni better awhile in my trembling heart. thoughts always prevailed. Only a little spoiled by fashion, a little too gay, perhaps, always careful, however, to except such but my own true wife. I felt it with tears works as Rebinson Crusoc, Mother Goose, when our baby was laid in my arms and How beantiful she was that night. and fairy storics. What does this prove, if she rested her beautiful, pale face against who was used to her beauty, was startled t proves anything, but that such works of mine and called me "Papa." Oh! then I into new admiration. She wore cloudy fiction as they have read they find innocent knew she was my very own "till death ray of light. of evil, and promoting good? The same should us part.' Then began the honey- and brushed the hair from my forehead, and iction, would probably enlarge the ophere wound have been very happy then had it caresses, Rachel-no shade of sadness in of reading until it ceased to condemn works not been for Mrs. Hamilton. She came of fiction, as such, and only condemn such often to see Pearl, and filled her ears with ton was waiting." "And Aunt?" asked works as were evil in themselves.

tidings of the gay world, laid plans of fushalow expand her face as I kined When it comes 10 reading much of the ture revelues in which my wife was to rash that is now thrown loose upon the shine conspicuous. I do not think she sleep, but read till I was tired; then sat at world, one is almost disposed, in a fit of the dreamed of the mischief she was doing- the window smoking, and very, very happy. spleen, to condemn all reading together; womanly vasities had grown so familiar to hastily, and said you wanted me, Rachel, but when we find that to acquire knowledge her she aever thought of their dangers. A stir, and a servant entered my room hastily, and said you wanted me, Rachel, and leered impuriently. Oh! your pale we have to sift for ourselves, and that You had never been with us, Rachel-re- face! I had seen it pale, deathlike, before, heaven knows its own rules for confound- fused all invitations-but a voice had come but never that look. ing the work of evil, we can hope that some from the quiet country-side, and every she is gone." My head reeled like a drunkbooks, though apparently far from God, heart was stirred by its warblings. Seared en man s, and the words went singing and at the Paris Opera Comique. may prove to be the toad in whose head is natures thrilled to the echoes of childish gibbering through it. I saw them in the humbled into life and roused into energy exultingly in my face; and through it all I could, the heart that had suffered and conall the sorrewing.

of my married life, when I found the quiet household loves I had dreamed of joys ua- late youth and innocence.

ing to soften and rebuke my passion. Let me begin with the evening Pearl left in your hand. is wrong. On this account Schiller's drama said, "Well, it wasn't say fellow by that name, but it was Steve Jenes that kissed to that Saviour who blessed little children, late room. It is the same in which Pearl and bade them "come unto him;" and more slept to awaken no more. I could not stay says that no one falls in love with her unless they are "dreadful wicked" or "awful thoughtfulness dawaed in her beautiful you sver think of my lonely, dreary life, cr. Is there no young man between these two extremes that would like to try eyes, my girl-wifs started at the magnitude llow my thoughts wander to-day-Rachel of existence. It was a very happy night -Rachelthe happisat of my life, I think. The Carl! Oh, death! oh, weary time! Here write; but never again with the glory of Carl-my Carl!"

that evening-never again with its rich promises for the naknown future.

Peace, peace-I only ask for peace; care is my Each day some such Iconoclast breaks all my

That was our last evening alone together. The next brought John llamilton. I thought he frowned as he saw me sitting so lover-like beside Pearl, holding her hand. Baby was shown with the pride of yonag motherhood, and, though he praised our little Lily, I don't think he relished seeing Pearl's graceful cares for it or her loving earesses.

Company, company, all the timel Pearl looked worn and pale-no more my wife, but the pst of fashion. Mrs. llamilton said "it was anring," and baby was banished when not on exhibition. Then Pearl Eugene Thayer, a favorite organist, has been ed and the deep rose flush again tinted was well enough to drive ont-that was playing some of Handel's fugues, written what she needed. I proposed taking her expressly for the organ. Hitherto only to the country, but was put down. More | llandel's choruses and vocal pieces, adapted gaieties, balls, parties, concerts, soirces. for the organ, have been heard on that in-How I hated them! I plunged late litera- strument in this country. ure, politics, and, alas! worse courses.

side. More gaiety, balls, boating, and misery. Dwight's Journal says: look sadly after us. Often gay parties would pass, and Pearl would nod and smils from them; and I would look at her, so bright and beautiful, and then down at the a tour in Oregon. little fading blossom in my arms. Mrs. Hamilton sald "I was a goose about the in the Canadian towns.

baby dying. at the open window, my head leaning on his smokingroom in London. my hand, watching the varying breath slowly dying on the thin, white lips. Pearl I closed the cat' eye at would rely's version of Gluck's "Orphons." sele k up to one, an I thought of y light, and would that you might was a led away.

Par rav I and tore her beautiful hair, and rebellionsly called on the God she had offended, and cried that I never, never would love her again. My poor, miserable young wife; her grief was as transient as and excitement was necessary, or she would last two acts of "Mirella." go crazy." She was dragged from my arma into the world again, and I, crushed the memory of those angel eyes that looked Mile. Sax as the leading vocalist. down on their father.

Then you came to as, Rachel. I scarce knew what my feelings were when they told me you were in my house-pain, pleasare, and a thrill of something nameless. claimed you, for it knew you now; but how firmly you measure off its approach. And Pearl would have feted and lionized you, but you gently refused, and she withdres herself partially from its vortex. How eved to see your slight figure in its quiet colored drapery moving around my hundsome rooms. Once I had thought it too fashion, I met Pearl and wooed and won You had been with us nearly two months, you to the scenes of my old boyish happi-Rest, panse, my pen; leave that evening

Then Pearl went off to dress for some party. We were talking earnestly when she returned of your new works, I think. white drapery, and looked as ethereal as a I told her so, and she smiled its clear ring. A servant came for Pearl-"Mr. Hamil shadow eroused her face as I kissed. One-two-three-four. I could not You tottered towards memories and purer joys; hearts cankered air, in the faces, in every object around me. Everything echoed and shouted them; at Dieppe, will appear this fall at the hideous imps leared at me and eried them.

Theatre Lyrique in a new three-act opera opened and Nelly could not go, been from its noble teachings. I read, as few could hear your voice faintly, as if coming from a distance, and could feel your hands on my arm. Suddenly a terrible thirst for quered and now hung in tender pity over blood seized me. I tore myself from your Il the sorrowing.

arms, and rushed from the house. Eager, sing that and other first one came in the early moments eraving hunger for blood was all I felt or Fair at Cremona. knew until I opened my eyes again in the realized—came to me in my bitter awaken. I closed my eyes and slept. When I aroused again you were sitting beside me libretto. in a low rocking-chair, with some sewing You laid it asido and looked, lying on the crimson velvet cush. hand, but my own fell back nerveless. lons, in her waite wrapper. It was spring broth, and I slept again, like a weary child. You bade me be quiet, and fed me with time, not warm enough to be without fires, A figure, with flowing hair like molten yet too close to have the windows down. I gold, hung over me. I thought I was dead, looked at my pretty young wife and at my and in lleaven, and l'earl with me. The costly rooms, where wealth had gathered splender, and the morning star hung like Opera is the attraction there at present. every comfort, and my heart swelled with thankfulness. I talked to Pearl as I had skies. I saw some one behind my bed, and never talked before—of our leve that tried to speak. Then you came to me, Rschel, and answered, "All is well." The should be all and all to each other, beyond world judges harshly, and she faded from and above everything else on earth; of our us, withered under its blight; and I cut good Father who had strown our lives with this curl from her shining tresses; and we usual successes in "Norma." Tombesi is the with a pa, I of water near his mouth. so many blessings and asked so little in laid her ln the dark grave; and she was tener singing there with her.

old homestead, and time had wandered back

llow bright the sun shines over my desc with you, Rachel. My old love returned, and style:

[For the Louisville Sunday Democrat.] FRAGMENT.

BY B. ERNEST EVART. I'm gathering beautiful gems to night From memory's tranquil sea, And some of the richest and rarest I've lain aside for thee.

There's many a hope of my childhood Stranded upon the shore,
And a voice steals up from the ruins Whispering "never more."

But the moon is shining as brightly As ever it did of yore, And up in the skies an angel choir Is ainging "forever more.

MUSICAL GOSSIP.

-At the Boston organ concerts Mr.

Lily thrived badly; she was surely a lily Boston Musical Hall during the first two all that she learns while here. It is the as ever grew, so pale and faded in all her weeks of last month. Three of them were laces and finery. I questioned the doctor. given by Mr. Morgan and Mr. Chase, or- time to keep school ourselves, to take care He advised the sea-side. We went to the sea- ganist and basso of Grace Church, of whom of mother, for she has to work very hard

I spent most of my time with our little Mr. Morgan's popularity does not wear one, holding her tiny hands and turning out, and his audiences, we are told, were her soft, silken ringlets over my fingera iarger than the average. The hearty good nature of the man is attractive, and also llow eagerly her blue eyes opened to mine; it is but fair to say it-in spite of all the how very quiet she would lie in my arms. dash and bravura of his playing, his real l would walk up and down the beach, and some persons would laugh and some would left a most favorable impression.

-Ossian E. Dodge, the vocalist, is dodging about California, having just concluded

-Anna Bishop and daughter are singing child." I think l'earl never dreamsd of ... In Sala's new story, "Quite Alone, the truth. I know she never thought our there is a musical character-one Sir Timotheus O'Boy-who is sald to have zine of It was one summer evening—so starry Father Schmidt's organs at his country ing over, wooing my darling away. I sat beaten by the Harmonions Blacksmith in

-Madame Viardot has been singing in 'Norma' at Carlsruhe, and is expected to was gone. I and the servant were alone. sing in English opera in London, in Chor-

- 1 Turk phone can be heard at Alfred Mans promisade concerts in London by the design be re she and a real live Turk, Ali Ben Soualle by au pays upon the Turkophone.

-- Gonnod is said to be occupied in writing incidental muslo, on an unually grand scale, for a new play by M. Legonve, ln wild. Mrs. Hamilton said "change of scene Theatre Lyrique. He is also rewriting the studies, and as Mary had tarried within

-A Jubileo Musio Festival was held and missrable, only elung to good through at Antwerp on the 24th of August, with

-The Grand Duchess Helena of has presented to the Mozarteum at Salzburg What quiet comfort rose over our shattered of piano-forte exercises, written by Mozart's for her, too, and she was evidently ill at The world would have father, but towards the end of the book ease whenever she noticed the teacher there are some ten or twelve pages in the looking at the bright pink flowers that hand of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart himand comprise five compositions hitherto unknown, namely: 1. Allegro, C major, com- She ascertained the residence of quiet, but my eyes had been surfeited with Minnette, D major, composed the 30th No- self by a narrow purse, that same night, gaudy trappings. I felt my heart warming in love tewards the whele world—my miskind. My wife was dearer than ever, and Sketch, composed 11th May, 1762; and, in such a way that the denor could not more demestic than she had ever been. lastly 6-which seems to be the movement easily be detected. lastly, 5-which seems to be the movement of a study or sonata, of the same period.

-For the Hereford Musical Festival, carly Tietiens, Lemmens-Sherrington, Weiss and voice that laughed in spite of all her efdissipation of New York high life. It was had been talking in one of those social Sainton Dolby among the ladies, and Messrs. relative that laid the golden eggs. It robe too much temptation for her youth and childhood of all its falry-like imaginings.

Description of the second sec

> -Ferdinand lliller has charge of the teacher, kindly. Musical Conservatory at Cologne.

-Maria Krebs, the new prodigy-a girl every day." tention by her piano-forte performances in

-At the baths of Lucea, Walter Backe, an English pianist, has given a concert, alded by Papini, a young Italian violinist.

persons, if they had read other works of moon of our married life. I think we kissed me; and you laughed at our lover- popular success at Alfred Mellon's first to warble when the sun shines. So out of popular concert ln London. She sang tho polero from "Vespers," the polacea from "Puritani," and Benedict's variations on dren of a very poor widow, whose health I thought a the Carnival of Venice-in all of which, was so delicate that it was almost impossaith a critic, "she absolutely transported her bearers."

-M. Sainton, the violinist, and his wife, the eminent contralto, are visiting Parls, where Madame Sainton's singing his atracted much attention.

-"l'ulcinella" is the title of a new comle pers. by Memet, to be produced this season

by Victor Masse. -Steffanone, the original Leonora in sing that and other parts during the coming [ stood it for a for night. Oh, if I only -Schira's forthcoming opera "Leah" will

-At Loretto, Donizetti's "Lu crezia Borher room. How delicately beantiful she came to me. I tried to take your gia" has been sung, the principal parts filled by professional artistes and the secondary church containing the "Santa Casa."

-They have in Naples a "Winter Gar, len" theater called the Giardino d'Invern's

-Todesco has been singing "Anna Bolena" at Madrid, with Mongini in Rubini's The famous part of Percy.

creasing heat in somewhat the following ing his sickness, but now style: "Hot, hotter, hotterst; hottentot, pounds. Two of these remark with you, Rachel. My old love returned, and style: "Hot, hotter, hotterist; hottentot, pounds. Two of these remarkable reptiles dreve me from your side. I traveled in hottentottist, hottentottist, hottentottist, hottentottist, hottentottist. light like a blessing over us. As Pearl wept lone, strange lands, and now have come simus; hot as an oven, hot as two ovens, siz for preservation. So waky, but not imposand clung to me, while a new womanly back to die in our old homestead. You are hot as four ovens, hot as seven ovens,

What are you drunk again?" Vermont. Over $1,500 worth have been young moon shines into my room now as I let me die, with my head on your heart!

Carl! Oh, death! oh, weary time! liere young moon shines into my room now as I let me die, with my head on your heart! drel has been rubling my boots till they nalace, for bad spirits are re-tailed there." lare as smooth as :, pane of glass."

"You were not here yesterday," said the gentle teacher of a little village school, as she placed her hand kindly on the curly head of one of her pupils. It was re-cess time, but the little girl addressed had not gone to frolic away the ten minntes, not even left her seat, but was engaged in what seemed a fruitless attempt to make

THE ONE CALICO DRESS.

herself mistressof a sum in long division.

Her face and neck crimsoned at the remark of her teacher, but, looking up, seemed somewhat reassured by the kind glance that met her, and answered, "No, ma'am; I was not, but sister Nellie was."
"I remember there was a little glrl, who called herself Nellie Gray, came yester-day, but I did not know that she was your sister. But why did not you come? seem to love study very much."
"It wasn't because I did not want to,"

was the earnest reply, and then she pausthe fair brow; "but-but," continued she, after a moment of painful consideration, "mother cannot spare both of us conveniently, and so we are going to take turns. am coming to school one day and sister Nellie the next, and to-night I am going to teach Nellie all I have learned to-day, -There were sight organ concerts at the and to-morrow night she will teach me only way we can think of getting along, and we both study very much, so as to take care of us." With genuine delicacy Miss Mbore to question the child any further, but sat down beside her and in a moment explained the rule which was puzzling her young brain, so that the difficult was ensily finished. "You had better go out now in the air for a moment, you have studied very hard to-day," said the teacher, as the little girl out aside her slate.

"I had rather not-I might tear my dress; I'll stand by the window and watch

There was a peculiar volce in the tone of her pupil, as she said, "I might tear my dress," that Miss M. was led instluctively to notice it. It was nothing but a ninepenny print of a deep pink hue, but it was neatly made, and had nover as yet been washed. And while looking at it she remembered that during the whole previous fortnight that Mary Gray had attended that millions of angel eyes seemed bendseat in Devonshire, and the original anvil school regularly, she had never seen her ful little girl," said she to he !, "and does not want to make her poor mother any trouble. I wish I had more as he schol

On the next morning Mary was alsen, but her sister Nellie occupied her seal There was something so interesting in the wo little sisters, one cleven and the other eighteeen months younger, agreeing to attend school by turns, that Miss M. could not help observing them very closely. They were pretty-faced children, of deligate and fairy-like hands an ! feet-the elder with dark and lustrous eye's and chestnut curls-the younger with orbs like the sky of June, her white neck vailed of he wreath of golden ringlets. She observed which Madame Ristori will appear at the in both the same close attention to their during the playtime, so did Nellie; and npon speaking to her as she did to her sister, she received too the answer-" I might tear my dress." The reply caused Miss M. to notice the garb of the sister. She saw at once it was off the same piece as Mary's, and, upon scrutinizing it very closely, she became a volume of music containing a few pages at so closely on Nellie and was too long were set so thickly on the white ground. The discovery was one that cou self. They date from the years 1762, 1763, but interest a heart so truly benevolent as posed in Brussels, 14th October, 1763; 2. mother, and, though sorely shortened herhaving found at the only store in the piace a few yards of the same material, purchased erable heart that had almost cursed its composed 16th July, 1762; 4. Minuette a dress for little Nellie, and sent it to her

Very bright and happy looked Mary Gray as she entered the school-room at an early hour. She waited only to place her books in neat order on her desk, ere she approached Miss M. and whispered in a

"That is very good news," replied the other, kindly. "Nellie is fond of her books I see, and I am happy to see she ean have the opportunity to study her books every day." Then she continued, a little of twelvo years-is attracting much at- good-natured mischief encircling her eyes and dimpling her sweet lips.'

mother spare you both?" "Oh, yes, ma'am, she can now. Somehing has happened that she did not expect. and she is as glad to have us come as we are to do so. She hesitated a moment, but her young heart was alled to the brim with joy, and when a child is happy it is natural to tell the cause as it is for a bird the fullness of the heart she spoke, and told the teacher this little story.

She and her sister were the only chil-sible to support herself and little daughters. She was obliged to keep them out of school all winter, because they had no othes to wear, but she told them if they could earn enough by doing old chores for the neighbors to buy each of them a dress, they might go in the spring. Very earnestly had the little girls improved their stray chances and very oarefully hoarded the copper coins which usually paid them. They had each nearly saved enough to buy a calico dress. Nellie was taken sick, and as the mother had no money be--Miolan-Carvalho, after a vacation spent forehand, her own little treasure had to be "Oh, I did feel so bad when the school opened and Nelly could not go, because she had no dress. I told mother I would not go either, but she said I had better, for I could teach sister some and "Trovatore" in this country, is engaged to that it would be better than no schooling. knew who it was, I would get down on my

One Signor Marcello has written the for them; and O, Miss M-, we are so And when, on the following Monday. little Nellie, in her new pink dress, entered the school-room, her face radiant as a rose in the sunshine, and, approaching tho teacher's table, exclaimed in tones as musical ones by the choir singers of the famous as those of a freed fountain, "I am coming the "Santa Casa": to school every day, and O, I am so glad." Miss M- felt as she had never done before—that it was more blessed to give knees and thank them, and so would Nei-

ly. But we don't know and so we've done than to receive. A Gipsy woman in Halifax, Novia otia, cured a man for one hundred doliara, who had four lizards in his stomach, amous part of Percy.

Penco, at Cadiz, has made one of her in the following novel way: She fed him on salt pork for several days, then bound him han d and foot and laid him down ten minutes a large green lizard peeped out between is lipe, and soon after three more jumped of thank made for the water. The man had fal, 'en away 78 pounds dur-

> In the course of a conversation or isquisition on Satan, Archbishop Whately once startled his listeners by asking, "If the devil lost his tail, where should he go to find a new one?" and, without giving palace, for bad spirits are re-tailed there.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO. -OFFICE-

low the Customhouse. SUNDAY, SEPT. 4, 1864.

CITY NEWS.

WANTED,

At this office, a carrier for the Evening News In the lower part of the city.

SUBSTITUTES-ONE MORE DAY.

Monday, the 5th last, is the last day mentloned in which the different States can supply their quotes by volunteer enlistments. morning, and, as far as we are prepared, will supply them at "market rate."

SPECIAL ELECTION.

The Senatorial election, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. Gibson Mallory, will take place on Monday, the 5th inst. There are four candidates in the field. Surely all can be suited.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS-Saturday, Sept. 3 -Court to-day, and the andience kep! such a posed o':

Wm. Long, drank and disorderly conduct; discharged. Mary Downs, drunk and disorderly conduct; discharged. N. S. Long, arrested for the same offense; let off.

Jos. Johnston, f. m. c., was picked up by the police in a drunken condition; bail in $100 for three months.

Chas. S.ewart, just in from Cave City, was before the Court as a suspected felon; discharged.

Pauline Jewett, f. w. c., stealing clothes worth over $4 from Mrs. Sheppard; continued till Monday. Ellen Kingsman, stealing $150 from Michael O'Connel'; continued till Monday. Milton Tate, f. m. c., essauling . In Mitcheil, f. w. c ; the care was sent bear the Grant

The ordinance dock at w & called.

Report.-During the past six m ath a at Barracks No. 1 lu the way of receiving and transporting prisoners and convalescent soi-Withington, with a report. During the past ing the business of the concern, on Market six months, ending August 31, there have been street, between Fifth and 8 x:h. 3,480 rebel prisoners received, mostly from the Army of the Comberland, and during the illes in this city who are in a poor and helpless tachments under the command of officers golng to Nashville. Mr. W. has been efficient in the discharge of his duty as clerk.

THE CITY.-Yesterday was rather a duli day in the city. It was at times "some warm, if to alleviate the wants of those who are really not summer," with now and then a gleam of in need of subsistence. And much good is sunchine, followed by an occasional shower, which rather put a damper on the weather and made it more pleasant and comfortable. The cleak of the weather will confer a favor on numerous young ladies in this vicinity if the cold and blitter winds of winter would he will give us a elight shower occasionally to come upon them. An idea may be formed as cool the air and lay the dust, so that it will to the number of persons whose only hope for be both pleasant and agreeable "when evening dally subsistence is by this means, when we chades are drawing nigh." Very few arrests were made, and none for drunkenness. No rations are issued per dey to those who are disturbances, miniders, &c. Our city is im. in reality entitled to them. Of course there proving finely.

BARRACKS No 1 .- Business was brisk at Barracks No. 1 vesterday, as the following statement will show : Six handred and six convaicecents and twelve descriess were sent to Nashville, sixteen convalescents to Lexington, four to Muziordville, fifteen to Cincinnati, six to Columbus, two to Indianapolis and two to Springfield. The number of receipts were two hundred and sixty recruits from Detroit Mr. Day is the clever transportation clerk, and has our indebtedness for favors.

IMPORTANT CAPTURE-ARRIVAL OF PRISON ERS - Yesterday news of the utmest importance reached our city to the effect that the victorious fore is of Juo. Cawein & Co., of this city, bad captured Shrewsberry and Prince's Bay, and had brought to this city with them a large number of prisoners confined in barrel'. and those who doubt this can learn the truth of the same by calling at Walker's Exchange, on Third street, where they can procure five shell cysters served up in any style.

There were but fifty rebel prisoners and five political prisoners confined in the military prison yesterdey. The ratients in the hospital are getting along finely. Every medical and other attention is being pild them to make them as contented and happy as possible. Capt. Pratt keeps the prison in fine order, and the strictest diecipline prevails in and about it.

Atlanta is Taken.

Major Alien, Chlef Paymaster Department of the Cumberland, received a dispatch Friday, from Major Gienn, informing him that he was in Atlanta, paying off the officers who have so far entered tha! stronghold of rebeldom. He states that the 20th Army Corps were the first to enter the Gate City.

WALNUT STREET BAPTIST CHURCH .- The repairs of the main room used in public worship being complete, the above named church | ment, August Reckinger, Terry Ridge, very bad. will be reopened for Divine service on Snnday, Sept. 4th, at the hours of 11 a. M. and 714 P. M., Rav. G. C. Lorimer, the pistor, officiating. The public are invited to attend. d2

MILITARY PRISON .- There are at present 235 deserters from the rebel army confined in the milliary prison, who will have the oath week. One of them, Leonard Yeas:, a memadministered to them and be sent one hundred miles out on the Jeffersonville railroad alry, was taken home by his father for interand turned loose to find a "habitation and a name."

SOLDIERS' HOME -There were but about 700 occupants at the Soldiers' Home yesterday. A lot of soldiers were expected to arrive there last night. This lastitution most generally has from 1,000 to 3,000 stopping there daily.

MEETING .- Tae Father Matthews Temperance and Benevolent Society will meet this efternoon at four c'clock in the Sodality Chapel at the Cathedral. Those who wish to become members are requested to be present.

Messrs, Robert Scay and Tyson had a final hearing yesterday before the Provost Marshal, and were paroted, with orders to repost, if called upon, at any time.

The trains on the Nashville and Bardstown railroad are in fine running order now, and both arrived on time last evening.

Guerrillas Cross the Lexington Rail-guerrillas put obstructions on the Louisville ending September 31, 1864; and Frankfort railroad, above Lagrange, doubtfrom the track and capturing the train. In this they were disappointed, for the areits threw the obstacles out of the way, and south side Green Street, two doors be the train was not stopped at all. About 9 c'clock, about 300 rebels, led by the redoubtable Jessie, crossed the raliroad between Smitt field and Jericho, Barksdale, going in the direction of Shelbyville. They did not pause to damage the road; but we learn that they captured an old man named Waldon-a Union man-and carried him off !

with them, for what purpose we were unable to learn. He lived four miles from Lagrange, and was a good and worthy citizen. The guer Illias will no doubt pay Shelbyville a visit. LATER -The passenger train from Lexington errived on time last evening, having come through unmolested by guerrillas. The accommodation train which left this city yesterterday afternoon with the intention of extend ing the trip to Lexington, on a special occa-The deficiencies are to be supplied by draft, slop, was stopped at Lagrange, it being reand that will follow in a few days-as soon as ported that a large rebel force-from three the credit can be given for volunteers and handred to five hundred in number-were above there, on the railroad, and that it was substitutes and the books and ballots prepared. their intention to capture it, if it went on. A If there are any who wish to seenre substi- fight had been going on for some time, last inter, we have a few with whom we can ac- night, as heavy firing was heard distinctly at commodate them. Call promptly on Monday Lagrange for an honr or two. It is supposed that Col. Buckley, and his forces from Newcastle, had encountered them. The train was ordered to return to the city, having only a guard of twelve men, and left Lagrange about

Among the passengers on the train were Capt. George W. Womack, Dr. T. S. Bell, and others of this city, who were going to Lexington. Up to a fate hour it had not arrived, hence we are unable to give any particulars. It was their intention, no doubt, to capture the There was a large attendance at the Police down freight and up passenger trains, but were persuaded cut of it by the citizens. Another continued moving about that nothing could equad of eighty more crossed the railroad at be heard. The following business was dis- Overstreets, about five o'clock in the evening, five miles below Lagrange, going in the direction of Shelbyville. There is no doubt but the country in that vicinity is awarming with these reving bands.

ten o'clock.

SCMETHING NEW .- A number of the mechan ics of this city have recently epened a family grocery store under the name of the "Co-op erative Store." It is a joint stock company arrangement, and is intended to "create a feeling of mutual confidence among workingmen, and to alford greater opportunities for mutual consultation as to their true laterests." In addition, it is calculated to secure to the stockholder that amount of profit which has beretofore been paid to others. Shares are sold at ten dollars each, and to prevent a monopoly no stockholder can own more than ten shares, nor are the shares transferable. An annual dividend is to be declared, not to exreed twenty per cent., to be divided among the stockbolders according to the amount is v t d. If t'e profits exceed twenty per cen' on the amount of stock invested, the residn large amount of business has been transs and in to be divided among stockholding pur chas is accurating to the amount of their pur chases during the year. The plan is that of diere, it being the great Goorway through the R hade'e England) Association, which has which sil pass going to and returning from been emin ly enccessful. The store is doing the army. We have been furnished by the a thriving business, and of course must be a the mouth of Wolfe creek, of money, clever and accommodating clerk, Mr. Rulph success. Will Horse is at present conduct-

RATIONS .- There are a large number of famsame period there have been 18,080 convales- condition, and a larger portion of these are cents and recruits received, mostly, if not all, the wives and mothers of those who are in the from the different States on the other side of field, fighting for all that is near and dear to the Ohio river. These are independent of deleft widows and crphan;-whose husbands have eacrificed their lives upon the altar of their country for their country's cause. The Government, we learn, is doing all in its power being accomplished in this way, for if the poor widow and her helpless children were deprived of their dally food, want and starvation would soon stare them in the isco when Inform our readers that from 2,500 to 3,000 are those who do not make application at all, and are able to support themselves without any assistance from this source. The clerks, and all concerned in doing this good work, deserve credit for their energy and promptness in the falthful discharge of their duties.

The following is a list of rebal prisoners esplured in this State and received at Barracks No. 1 on Friday night, from Bowlinggreen, Kentucky. Most of them belonged to and fifty convalescents from different points. gnerrilla parties : Washington Cock, A. B. Patterson, James Townsend, J. W. Ashenbaugh, Sam Cooper, Marlon Cooper, James Clark, Wm. Diibrock, J. Humphrey, Lee Heath, Michael Adamson, J. W. Lamer, Loland Woodson, Joseph Yates, Isaac Miller I asc Martin, James A. Miller, John Heath, Wm. L. Williams, Tuma Long, B. P. Wallace, John Wetson, Richard Hawkins, Thomas Lowrey, Edmund Wagoner, Sherwood Hatley, Rupeli Price, J. W. Weeke, Richard Clarkston, Spencer Herrick, James R. Curry, N. B. Waggoner and John Baptist Carrier.

> MARRIAGE LICENSES .- Marriage licenses the clerk of the Jefferson County Court from the 27th uit. to the 31 inst.:

the 27th uit, to the 31 inst.;
Joseph Kaufer to Catherine Burdelle.
John T. Rogers to Snedy Phillips.
James P. Williams to Melissa Ann Moore.
Geo. Scharfanberger to Rosens Rice.
Andy Schrader to Keile Siapanhorst.
Patrick Welch 10 Mary Gauly.
John T. Akin to Helen M. Smith.
O. T. Merriman to Maggle A. Williamson.'
F. G. Stidger to Jodle MeGill.
Michael O'Connall to Ellen Kineman.
Joseph Montgomery to Mary J. Holtzelaw.
James Collins to Carrie Spencer.
E. C. Jenkins to Mary Siephens.
Michael Cavender to Louisa E. Markwell.
Daniel Kinmb to Mary Zieh.
Henry Tobe to Kate Fneting.
Joseph Beyer to Sophie Frank.
John Colyer to M. A. Keen. Joseph Beyer to Sophie Fr John Colyer to M. A. Keen

The following is a list of prisoners a: cated by the Provost Marshal in this city Mears, Samuel Parkhurst, John W. Wilson, Richard Malley, Wm. Marshal, Jacob Clem-Clande Higgins, Joseph Garrett, Wallace R Abbott, John Clarke, Geo. B. Mettingly, Geo. Ailen, Daniel Connelly, Monroe Connelly, Henry Bouning and Thomas D. Horner. But two Kentucky soldiers have died in the hospitals in this city during the past week ber of company C, Eieventh Kentucky cav ment. The other, Mr. Ferguson, of company M, Eleventh Kentucky cavairy, was buried in the Nashville train night before last. A train Cave Hill Cemetery.

KILLED -Yesterday moraleg an old and highly respectable citizen of Mi. Washington, whose name we could not learn, was killed by a man supposed to be a guerrilla. He was Scott Glore left them, and has more of the handed over to the sheriff of Shepherdsville, same sort. who brought him to this city last evening.

Six men were arrested yesterday charged with having counterfelt money in for New Ocleans papers of the latest dates. their possession. None being found upon their persons, we believe, they were turned 13 There are one hundred and fifty men. women and children-all refugeee-at the Refugees' Home, opposite the military prison. We are indebted to the gentlemanly clerks connected with Col. Farleigh's headquarters for their attentions to this cilice.

The following is a list of letters and descriptive rells remaining in the Medical About 7 c'clock yesterday morning a equad of Director's office, Louisville, Ky., for the week

Dr J W Tedron liarimora, a manua-liarrington, Wilford liart, Hlram Hooper, Devid Hoagiand, John B Hall, William Sorg James E Cox, Aten, Charles S Hoagiand, John B Hall, William Hall, William Hall, Worge C Hask, John Hall, George R Hagarty, Paul Hall, Hames E Kern, James B Lawson, Andrew Logan, P C Lain, James T Martin, Henry H Marshall, John J McClain, Harney Drien, William Probet, Andrew Prichard, Simon Peterson, Jesse Quigley, Thomas L Hoewell, Obed Landolph, John G Chance, Caleb Carroll, Engene henoworth, Joel T Carpenter, Alexander Cox, Christopher C Dunham, Geo H ngman, Francle Dunlap, Lowry Domeate, Edwin II Devia, Jenale K Devolve, Jamon Randolph, John G Smith, Wm H Smith, S W mmens, William ingland, Wm R Smith, S W
Smith, Cyrna P
Thomas, Simmons
Wilson, John S
Williams, John
Woolle, Joseph V
Weller, James E
Wakelee, A B
Werdell, Conrad Wills, John
r returned for proper Henry

DESCRIPTIVE BOLLS. Acuff, Arnold, 1, 82d Ind.
Balley, Heury D. F. 18th Wis.
Browne, John E. E. 169th New York.
Beal, Stephen R. A. 21st Ohlo.
Estel, Johnston, B. 9th Ky.
Forester, John R. A. 25th Ind.
Green, John, B. 15th Ohlo.
Hohl John C. 43th Penn. Green, John, B., 15th Ohlo, Hohl, John, C., 4tst Penn Keeling, Nathan, K., 3d E. Tenn. Karner, William, C., 93d III. McNeil, John B., 16th U. S., L. Morgan, John, I., 32d Wis. Trefethen, Hubbard, T, 75th III Wilkinson, John A. D. 65th Ind. Warden, Lewis, E., 65th Ohlo.

Persons calling for the above named letters and descriptive rolls will please say "adver

Lat of sick and wounded Kentucky oldiers from Sherman's army admitted Nashville hospitals August 28, 1864: J. W. Brown, co. K, 21st, leg amputated.
Zscharlach Brown, co. B, 20th, thigh.
Wm. Barnett, co. F, 21st, hand.
James Conner, co. F, 21st, hand.
James Conner, co. F, 15th, patpitation of heart.
Wm. Rogers, co. M, 6th, ankle.
Orcar D. Harvey, co. H, 3d, dysemtery.
Serg't S. B. Babbitt, co. L 27th, hernia.
Michael Kelley, co. K, 6th cav., bronchitls.
August Lamprecht, co. E, 6th cav., dysemtery.
Corp. John Kelley, co. C, 15th, sprain.
C. W. Smith, co. D, 15th, carry.
Henry Siliter, co. I, 6th, diarrhea.
T. W. Baird, co. C, 4th, evapullia. erry Siliter, co. I, 6th, diarrhea.
W. Baird, co. C, 4th, eyphilia. erg't James Caandler, co. G, 14th, conval-Baire, Candler, co. G. 1980, Green, co. A. 15th, scurry.
Green, co. A. 15th, scurry.
E. Greyson, co. C. 4th, left foot.
nel lluffeld, co. K. 16th, lot fever, decoase.
Ilolmes, co. A. 4th, syphills.
n Harsman, co. C. 4th, syphills.

Samuel Harfield, co. K. 14th, int. fever, decoased J. B. Holmes, co. A, 4th, syphills. John Harsman, co. C, 4th, syphills. John Biner, co. K, 4th, syphills. John Biner, co. K, 4th, syphills. James Waterman, co. K, 4th, rheumatism. Benj F. Chrisman, ev. B, 4th, foot. John Dake, co. A, 4th, inflammation of lungs. T. J. Davie, co. A, 4th, inflammation of lungs. T. J. Davie, co. A, 4th, tentitent fever. Curtis Holland, co. A, 4th, remittent fever. Corp. Henry Sing, co. L, 15th, dropsy. Jas. M. Webster, co. B, 7th cav. leg. Corp. James Mathew, co. E, 15th, right arm. Arthur May, co. E, 28th, conjunctivitie, John Pelferson, co. B, 16th stulia. Serg't F. B, Seary, co. D, 15th, scarvy. g't F. B. Seary, co. D, 15th, scarvy.
p. J. A. Orborn, co. I. 16th, int fever.
c. W. Riggs, co. 6, 10th, shoulder. GUERRIIVAS IN MEADE COUNTY-CAPTAIN

BRYANT KILLED -On Friday a lot of guerra. les robbed the store of C. M. Suth, at Budyville, of about $1,000 in money, goods, &c. They also robbed the store of Mr. Trent, at goods, &: , to a considerable amount, and on the same day robbed Calvin Murry of his horse, money, noter, &c, and a number of other persons in the neighborhood. They also made an attack upon Mr. Comba in his residence. Mr. C. bad a good rift: and succeeded in shooting four bails into the notorious Capt. B:yant, the commander of the robbers. Bryant lived but a few hours. After Bryant's death his men esturned and abot Mr. is "starring Combs. Mr. C. is still living but it is supposed he cannot surviva. These are the same set of fellows that have becu hovering around Gernettsville, Brandenburg, Meadville and the Big Springe.

TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE -The following transfera of real estate were made in the city of Lenisville and Jefferson county from the 30th uit, to the Si instant . M. M. Nash to W. F. Pettit, 30 feet front on west aide of Sixth street, between Wajnni and Chestinat.

Mary E. Owen to Moses Adler, 27% by 100 feet on Grayaon street, between Sixth and Sevents.

th and Seventh.

ord C. Ass to Maria J. Vanslekle, 31
105 feet on Fifteenth street, between 65 feet on Fifteenth street, between you and Walmit.
Anderson to W. W. Huilings, 66-10 in Jefferson county, Ky.
Welby to Franz Bilger, 25 by feet on Jackson, between Lampton &c., 16 by 200 feet on Chestnut street, be-tween Thirteenth and Fourteenth... amos Guthrie to Regina Manz, 50 by 160 feet on Spring street. sham Henderson to William and Mary Maple, 25 by 150 feet on Frantice street

300 00

225 00 Tobe Mathene, a well known Comber and river mon, was shot at Paducah a few days aluce, under order of Gon, Paine, having been condemned by that officer as a rebel guerrilia. Tobe did belong to the Third Kentucky (rebel) infantry, deserted, and returned home about a year ego. Since then we know nothing of his history.

DESERTERS -Five deserters were arrested in the city yesterday and closely confiaed in the barracks on Ma'n street. Their names Warner, Thos. Bridgford and Lawrence Morgan. They each belonged to different regiments. Died.-Mrs. Ann Lyons, who was so sehave been issued to the following persons by verely burned a few days ago, died last evening from the ir juries she received. Her sufferings were intense until death came to her relief. The funeral notice will be found elsewhere in to-day's paper.

Rev. R. G. Brank, of Lexington, Ky., will preach in the First Presbyteriau Church, corner S'x'h and Green a reste, on Snuday, the 1st lustant, morning and evening, at the nsua! hours.

Some guerrillas took two horses from a gentleman at the mouth of Harrod's Creek on Tuesday night. They were the same gang who visited the depots on the Laxington rail-

RELEASED,-Mr. C. L. Raid, who has been during last month: Michael Vogle, John confined in the military prison for three weeks, was yesterday released without a trial, on account of his health, which at present is and Alabama railroad.

The capital prize of $11,000 in the Ken ucky State Lottery was sold on Wednesday last, by Croninger & Co., sgents in Coving top, to a well known steamboat pilot. A dispatch from Messrs, A. P. Murray & Co., from Nashville yesterday, atated that all rallroad communication south of Nashville had been cut off by raidera. About sixty sick soldiers arrived ou containing more is expected to arrive this morning from Nashville, We found a choics collection of papers, "all sorts," lying on our table last evening.

We are under obligations to Billy

There are at present seventy-five paynasters in the city, waiting for a draft on tha Tressury Department at Washington.

men liable to draft loss than the number she has to furnish under the late call,

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

Wood's THEATER.-This theater, which has become the most popular place with the people, will reopen to-morrow night. During the time it has been closed it has undergone the most thorough repairs, and so complete has the change been that no one will recegn'ze it as the same building. The theater has been repainted within and withou', the benches have been laid with the finest spring seats in the country, and, in feet, nothing has been left undone which would be fer the comfort of the sudience. The enterprising managers of this theater, Mesers. Duffield & F yun, have the thanks of the lovers of the drama in cur city, and we hope that they will receive more than a liberal share of their patronage. The new drop curtain, from the scenie pencil of J. H. West, is one of the most beautiful pleces of art we have ever seen. The scene represents the ruins of ancient Carthage, and must be seen to be appreciated. This theater is constantly growing in popularity, and in the course of the coming season will no doubt be the favorite place of amusement is our city. May the choicest blessings greet then which this To-morrow night they open with the cele brated Carter Zonave Tronpe, who are so well known in our city that they need no words of praise from us. The treupe is composed chiefly of young ladies, who, as artistes, stand as high as any in the country. In the ergagement of this troupe for the opening of the season the management have displayed good taste, and their enterprise will be fully appreciated and rewarded by the citizers of Lonisville.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.-This favorite place of amusement will open to-morrow night with the celebrated Zavistowski Troups. During the recess the hollding has been materially cularged. It is wider and deeper, and the charge has resulted in a vastly improved form. The sweep of the circle is graceful, and from any part of the house a good view of the stage can be obtained. The stage has also been enlarged, which necessitated the enlargement of all the scenery, so that the theater opens with entire new scenery throughout. A beautiful new drop curtain has also been added. The decorations of the theatre are of the most costly description. The decorations of the front of the second tier circle consist of groups of cupids in sito relievo, gold panueling, with heavy gilt moulding, and massive gilt chandeliers, designed in groteeque arabesque. The gallery is ornamented in the same style, but lighter. The dome is exquisitely painted in golden tiuted cloude, in the midet of which is a group of cupids awinging by wreaths of

The transformation of the leterior is so complete that not a trace of the former theater is to he distinguished. The cost of the improvements four years ago would have built a small theater, complete in every respect. As it is, Louisville can now boast of having one of the most complete and perfect theaters in America.

Mr. Samuel Gnlick, the scenic srtist, has had the exclusive charge of the scenic depart ment and the decorations of the auditor um, and deserves the highest praise for the skill and taste he has displayed, and for the antiring energy which has accomplished such marvels in a port a spinol time.

Mr. Speaker, the able machinist of the theter, has also shown great ability in his depart-We learn that the theater has changed hands. Mr. Fuller retires, having leased the building to Mesers, Carey & Calvert, Our old friend Thomas J. Carey is to have exclu- fighting in his stomach and made him sick for sive control and management of the institu- a week.

-The Webb Sisters are in Nashville playing to crowded houses, -Mr. B Macauley, well known in this city, succeed. -At Young Men's Hall, Detroit, J. W. Al-

baugh and Miss Mary Mitchell have been the stars the past week, and this week they come to Louisville. -lielen Western is soon to shine in all the

'starlight" of her glory at Wood's Theater-Cincinnati, and thence goes to St. Louis and Nachville

-Miss Fanny B. Prics commenced her sceond week's engagement on the 221 at Harr'sburg, Pa.

The Pittsburghers have taken up the I question in carnest. They are determined to check the extortionate demand of the dig gers, who are now receiving five cents par bushel for mining, and demand eight. A few years ago they were glid to get two cents a bushel for mining. Meetings of coal pro-ducers, dealers and consumers, on a large scale, have been held, and the determination fixed to keep the price of coal at er below ten cents. Meetings of the citizens of Pittaburg and Alleghony have been called to secure their co-operation in this movement. The citizens along the Ohio are vitally interested in this struggle between the miners and owners of coal banks. The result will have a material influence on the price of coal in this market during the winter.—[Civ. Com. It is all right and proper that "coal-diggers" and others should make all they can, fairly and legitimetely. In fact, it is reasonable and right for them to get the largest amount of money for their labor that they can; but there are two sides to the question, and it would be well for them to consider. The proprietors of the miner-these who have their means investedowe it to themselves sed to coal concumera throughout the country, not to be badgered are John F. Harmon, Lorren Shafer, John into paying three prices by a combination of men who, rather than work, prefer loading and ling dirt. drinking half or two-thirds of their time, unless they can get three prices-wages that Kentuckians at Chicago by the hats and would soon break up the proprietors of the mines, and which, in the end, would result in a main barm to themselves. If such combinations must forever be at war with those through whom they make their support, proprietors of coal mines, and everything else, must needs lu self-defense co-operate in some general system to avoid such raids upon their butiness. They cannot make a contract to supply coal for a month ahead, for in less than a week the miners may demand such increased wages as would twice absorb the profits on existing contracts. This uncertainty is ruluous to any business, and it is time counteracting it fluences were at work.

Wheeler's Movements, The Nashville Press of yesterday has the following: There has been nothing reliable received here in regard to the movements of Wheeler since he left in the direction of the Tennessee

We learn that a train, which left yesterday morning for Huntaville, had to return in con-sequence of the damage to the track on the above roud, and it was reported last evening that about five or six miles of the track beween Franklin and Spring Hill had been It was rumored just before dark last evening that a force had made a raid lato Frank-lin, and two railroad trains had been captured there, but this report was not credited. It is proper to remark that no intelligence It is proper to remark that no intelligence was received yesterday at headquerters, and it was enposed that everything was working well, and that Gen. Roussou was atill pursu ing and driving the rebels back.

Eight prisoners were received from Wheeler's command yesterday, among them Martin Fitzpatrick, a private in Wignm's bettery, who is badly wounded in the breast and arm, and is not expected to recover; he is now in hos-

SHOT HIS WIFE -A man by the name of Jesse Hoakins was committed to the Henderson jail on last Saturday, charged with shootlog his wife. The lahuman act was commit-Phillips, E.q., the popular New Orleans pulot, sed a few days since, in Wainut Bottom. He deliberately fired both barrels of his shot-gun into the body of her he had sworm to protect and defend, inflicting wounds that may prove fatal. Hossina was drawn as a soldler in the Trimble county, Kentucky, has eight managed to pay his $300 commutation. La Oa Monday last Lucian R., a son of Mr. R. S. Hopkins, of Paris, Ky., aged about two The Henderson packets are only run-There were four guerrillas at Shelby- years, fell off a stone feace and broke his ning as far as Evansville, so long as Renderville night before last. They left in a hurry. skall and neck, killing him instantly.

(For the Louisville Sunday Democrat. ) TO MISS ALICE MeGtie face of thine, Wreathed in smiles like some sweet vision the depths of "Auld Lang Syne;" And the words so kindly spoken, as they first full on my ear, Reminded me so vividiy of one who once was dear-Who gave to life ite brightness, all its earthly trust and love, Like a guiding siar that glitters in the "szure vanit above."

Hallowed memories there reposing, though I know they'll come no more; For that sweetest dream is ended, every charm i wore is o'er; Tat thy cheerful spirit whispers that behind this passing cloud

There's another silver lining-a truer heart less prond; That should an adverse shadow come again of rapid wing,

We'll not stoop so loss to sever ties which then should closer cling.

earthly home can give, such as bring no shade of sorrow, but in death bloom on and live Through the countless, joyous ages of the spirit land afar,

Where no farewell word is spoken-nanght can come to blight or man The day dreams thou hast cherished, blissful hope-that look on high, Where thy guardian angel takes thee, when thy summons comes to alel LOUISVILLE, KY.

THINGS WISE AND OTHERWISE. Selected and prepared for the Sunday Democrat,

BY "STAM." God save the land? We are her sons, And ever hope to rule upon her; But four long years of funeral-gune May well make fear without dishonor.

Come peace again; with Union come, And pride come without treason; Let through the thunder of the drum Breake the lond clarion of reason.

And we young men, while prays old age, Make no more strife with "who begun it;" Make ao more strife with "who begun it;"
This great land is our heritage,
And we will live, not die, npon it!
ALFRED THAMPLE.

Dark grows the windows, And quenched is the fire; Sound fades into ellence— All footsteps retire. No voice in the chambers, No sound in the hall! Sleep and oblivion Reign over all!

LONGFELLOW. -Piu not your falth upon a lady's sleeve exept while it is around your neck -"Hurra for the girls of '76."

"Revot me," said an Englishman, "that' too plaguey old. Oursy for the girls of 17." -The chap who was caught in the "reign of terror" got wet. He has bought an umbrells to shield him from a shower of bui-

-The freight elerk in the Frankfort depot unst be Smart, O. B. -If you want to get clear of "a friend," loan him a "dollar or two." enough. Let us have it all in one peace now. -A constry paper acks, "Who le McCleilat?" He is a son of his mother—at least he is supposed to be. -We see some young men leading against certain column at a street corner, and guess they have been leaning there for a weak back. -A drunken chap who took the rebel oath, and afterwards the Federal, said they got to Owensboro.

-A. Ward saye: "It I am drafted I shall reeign. D:eply grateful for the unexpected honor thus conferred upon m., I shall feel compelled to resign the position in favor of compelled to resign the position in favor of the military authorities in Evansville.

some more worthy person. Modesty is what alle me. That's what keeps me under." -A man and his heart like two next-door neighbors in a large city, may live together all their lives and never got sequalated.

-A cow may be said to be a gnerrilla wa've heard of them "hooking" horses. -The fellow who was a brick has been pressed—into his country's service.

-The chap who took a cold was screeted for trying to give it away to somebody. Just when the fight was won—
When the clouds broke from off the hard-won been lifted off.

fight
And the peare d flag leaped out upon our eight,
In Victory apriving from the fight like brave young son! went out. -The soldier who was put on guard has

-A lean, lack chap from the backwoods stepped into a Main-a-root house vesterday and asked: "Mister, do you want to hire a feller to stand is your store?" The proprietor replied, "No, sir; Iv's got a haif dozen too many standing in there now doing nothing." -If you want to buy a pair of shoes, don't purchase a pair that is half soled. -IIe is a fool who throws pearls to pigs and thinks the pork will eat the richer for the -Mrs. Partington saw a jol'y drunkard on the street and told Ike to never be like him, for, said she, "What will become of him? Salubrity has descrited him and he has the delicious tremendous,"

-The fellow who was shot and scratched by the ball, was half shot.

-The rebela have a Wheeler in Tennessee we have several on our fortifications-wheel--An Abolition editor says "he could tell the clothes they were." They knew you cheps would be there, and left their good clothes, watches and money at home. -A freckied-face young man is like an aged one-both wear specks on their faces.

-Let the ho and that runs after two bares at once take heed lost he catch neither. -"Teaching the young idea how to shoo!"

-selling a boy for a substitute. -When is a young lady like the President? When she's Abe Linkin'. -When Gen. McClellan occupies the Presidential chair we will give him three cheers. -They that govern most make least noise. -Atlanta is like medicine: It must be shaken before taken.

-A chap rin sway with a young lady last wesk and married her. It was a miss-take,

-A printer married a lady weighing 250 pounds. That was a fat-take. - If you marry a belle, keep it to yourself and don't let it be toil'd. Let the ring be kept accret. - To be happy, love your wife; if you haven't any, love somebody eise's. - A lot of envalry have gone in pursuit of

- If you want to marry your sweetheart, do so, if you can. It you can't, get some one to marry her for you. - Ladies, if your husbands scold you for haying too expensive onfis, give them a few smart ones to quiet them.

were all well and in the spirits.

son is jeopardized by guerrillas.

A letter has been received at Paris, Ky., from Adjutant C. V. Ray, of the Fourth Kentucky, dated Charleston, S. C , August 13th, in which he states that he was captured on a 3d inst. Revaced Fores, aged spears, 6 months and raid on the 30th of July, with thirteen other last draft, and, by reking and scraping, he captured his hat and keeps it as a trophy. She layltes him to call for it. Of course he will

The following is a list of Kentucky officers commissioned from August 26, 1964, t Bept. 2, 1864:

First Lieutenent Silas Howe, com ain Co. E. 18th infantry, Augus E. 18th infantry, August 7, 1964, vidacon, realigned, Lienfenant tienry P. Ritchey, committee Licutenant Co. E. 18th infantry, Augustee Silas Howe, proposed vice Silas Howe, promoted. leutenant John M. Poston, commissione Co. F. ISth infantry, August 12, 1864, vic James F. Miller, resigned.

Sergeant John R. Miller, commissioned 1st Lieutemant Co. F. 18th infantry, Angust 12, 1864, vice John M. Poston, promoted.

Sergeant George T. Williams, commissioned 2d Lieutemant Co. II, 37th Infantry, August 25, 1864, vice Thomae Youtcey, promoted.

First Lieutemant John McQneen, commissioned Captain Co. K., 47to Infantry, August 25, 1864.

Sergeant William Jackson, commissioned 2d Lieutemant Co. D, 52d Infantry, July 30, 1864, vice John W. Arnolt, resigned.

Captain John Drye, commissioned Surgeon 6th cavalry, August 21, 1864, vice L. J. Keelar, dishonorably dismissed.

First Lieutemant Levin M. Drye, commissioned

rably dismissed.
First Lienteniant Levin M. Drye, commissioned appain Co. G, 6th cavalry, August 21, 1864, vice Captain Co. 0, 6th cavairy, August 22, 1991, vice John Drye, promoted.

Wm. R. Smith, commissioned First Lientenant Co. I, 11th Inf ntry, June 17, 1894, vice R. T. Kennedy, resigned.

Second Lieutenant James A. Moores, commissioned Lieutenant James A.

I, 11th inf ntry, June 1., resigned. It resigned. Lieutenant James A. Moores, commissioned First Lieutenant Co. E. 4th Infaniry, Aust 25, 1864, vice A. Moores, promoted. Lieutenant Colonel R. M. Kelly. commissioned blonel 4th Infaniry, August 25, 1861, vice John T. roxton, promoted. Tompkins, commissioned 1961.

Colonel 4th Intan-ry, August 25, 1884, vice R. Major Josephna H. Tompkins, commissioned Lientemant Colonel 4th Infantry, August 25, 1864, vice R. M. Kelly, promoted.
Captain James J. Hudnall, commissioned Major 4th Infantry, August 25, 1864, vice Josephna H. Tompkins, promoted.
First Lieutemant Burwell S. Tucker, commiscaptain Co. D. 4th Infantry, August 25, 1864, vice James J. Hudna I, promoted.

GURBELLIAS ABOVE SMITHLAND -On F.I.

day uight, the 19th inst , ten guerrillas, some of whom said they belonged to Adam Johnson's command, crossed the river ten miles above Smithland, and went to the house of Captain Trowbridge. The Evapavile Journal says one of the number sent word to the Captain that he had a private mes soge for alm. Capt. Trowbridge, suspecting no danger, went to the gate, when slx or seven men surrounded him and ordered him to sar render. His father-in-law, Mr. McCormick postmaster of Bayfield, went to his assistance good price will be paid. Inquire at the Demwith a double-berreled shot-gur, and his wife also went with a ride; but Capt. T., seeing that resistance was uscloss, urged them not to shoot. The guerrillas then disarmed them, and taking them to the store, scated them with a guard placed over them, and proceeded to rob the store. They took near $3,000 worth of goods, including hoots, shoes, hats, broadcloths, and gewgaws and finery, as they said, for their sweethearts. The mother-in-law of Capt. Trowbridge oncealed their silver plate and other valuaoles while the thickes were operating at the

Gen. Palne will tery contributions on rebel By Applying at this Office. citizens of Kentucky to make good the Captalu'a loss.

In a private letter from an officer la the army to a gentleman in Cannelton, Indiana he recommended all soldiers who are home on sick furloughs to procure certificates a fast as their old ones expire, from the physiclaus, and instead of forwarding them to their officers in the field, to keep them until they return to their regiments, as many are lost, and -The country has been in pieces long jothers not properly filed, and when the soldier returns he finds himself reported absent without leave, and no evidence by which he can prove his inability to rejoin his regiment

> GUERRILLA PRISONERS.-J. D. Allen, of Compan, A. Kentucky State Gnard, with two omrades took three guerrilla prisoners to Evansville, Wednesday, by the Tarascon, from

> The names of the prisoners are J. A. Bar reit, Chas, Hail, and Jake Baker. Barrett and Baker were captured on Panther creek, and

The Paris Cit'zen learns that the Hon B J. Clay returned home from Richmond, Kentucky, on Wednesday last, and reports that a fight took place near Somerset, Ky, he tween the rehels, supposed to be under com mand of Gen. J. S Williams, and the Federals, on Tuesday last, in which the Federals lost some filleen men. The Federals were driven back, but were re-enforced.

The steamer Eureka was overhauled at the first lock on Green river lately by a hand of guerrilias who came on board and took $360 from the Captain, after which they allowed the boat to return to Evansville threatening to hurn her if she went any further up the river. The particular spite seems to be that the Eureka carried Federal troops.

Lieut. Jamea Coughian, of the Twentyonrth Kentucky infantry, formerly of Parla, Ky., and Ald-de-Camp to General Cox, was aptured on the 20th ult., near Atlanta, Ga. M.jor George W. Williams has sold his caldence in Paris, Ky, to Maj. Jere Duncan, for $11,000, and Coi. John A. Prall his, to Robt T. Davis, Esq., for $6,000. The Rebel General Wheeler used to be school-teacher in Vincennes, Indiana. LOCAL NOTICES.

We are prepared at the Democrat office

o supply a number of substitutes. Call at the counting-room.

FANCT GOODS—A splendid stock just open ed at Gay's China Palece, Fourth and Green French Flower Vascs-The finest re-cortinent ever seen in the city has just ar-lived at Gay's China Palace, Fourth and Green. DYSPEPSY, NERVOUSNESS AND DEBILITY-DR. STRICKLAND'S TONIC -We can recom meed those suffering with loss of appetite, in digestion or dyspensy, nervousness and nervous debility, to use Strickland's Tonic. It s vegetable preparation, free from alcoholi-liquors. It strengthens the whole nervous representation of the strengthens the whole nervous system; it creates a good appetite, and is warranted to cure dyspepsy and nervous debility. For sale by drugglats generally at $1 perbottle. Prepared by Dr. A. Strickland, 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O. aul? dwd:sn.tweow3:n

Tea Sets-A flue lot of French chine ogether with a spiendid lot of sliver-plated care—at Gay's China Palace, Fourth and Green.

tar A splendid lot of cologne sets of all styles, at Gay's Cains Paisce, Fourth and Green.

DIED.

The funeral will take place from the family residenon Pifteenth street, between Market and Jefferson, this rebels in this State. We hope they'll catch (Sunday) afternoon, at 2% o'clock. The friends of the Jessele.

> In this city, on Saturday, Sopt. 3d, WM. A. HARRIS, it the 40th year of his age. The friends and acquaintances of the family are in-vited to attend the funeral from bis late residence. on the corner of Seventh and Market streets, on Sun day, the 4th inst., at 3 o'clock P. M., without further n On the 3d inst. about 1 o'ctock, Mrs. Massa L., coort of Jno. L. Ferguson.

Gray street, bet. Brook and Floyd, this (Sunday) after acon, at 4 o'clock, officers, including Licut. Col. Kelley, and they Lyona, wife of Mr. Nas Lyona, in the 28th year of her

The friends and relations of the family are respectfully

nvited to attend the funaral from his residence, or

Was cowhided by a lady a few days ago. She and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend FOR SALE.

The funeral will take place this morning at 8 o'clock

Cincionati papers please copy.

GOLD At lowest market rates, by C. E. ROBINS, au28 d.4.81m 517 Main street, Louisville, Ky.

Brans Band and Burlesque Opera Troupe,
THE HEROIS OF A HEMINPHERE, THE GREAT
RON-CLADS.

A FTER AN ABSENCE OF NIXTEEN MONTHS, have returned and will appear as above, introducing an entire new programme not yet copied by their many limitators. Remember the date-MONDAY EVENING, Sept. Admission 50 cts. Doors open at 7; to commence at 9.

Entire change avery evening.

EAM. SHARPLEY, Manager.

FRANK CHLLEY, Agena.

AMUSEMENTS.

RETURN OF THE FAVORITES,

At Masonic Temple.

SAM, SHARPLEY'S MINSTRELS,

WANTED

THE HIGHPST PRICES PAID FOR DISCHARGED

Soldiers and Aliena, Inquire at the Democrat office at ace. The choice of service given. Apply at eace as Wanted.

Wish to Purchase

20 Good Sound Negroes.

From 18 to 20 years old. For such ones a au19 d,n&wif

Persons Wanting

Can be Supplied

WANTED, OR TWELVE MONTHS, $600, AT TEN PER CENT.
and good personal security. Address G., Louisville
setoffice,

WANTED. A GIRL, TO TAKE CARE OF A YOUNG BABY.
Good wages given. April at 751 Center street, between Chestnus and Broadway. Wanted, Immediately, OOD CLERK, TO A TEND IN OUR HOUSE, no but the best need apoly.
Add

WILL MEET AT THE COUNCIL CHAMBER, ON Monday, the 9th inst, at 8 o'clock E. M., set 8 add J. P. OHEAN, Sec'y. WANTED. A YOUNG MAN, TO MAKE HIMSELF GENERAL.

It useful, on a small place, six miles from the city,
Apply to

Firm of Davall & Settonum, sed Sladd Fourth st., bes. Main and Maract.

The Board of Trustees of Public Schools

Coffeehouse for Sale. WISH TO DISPOSE OF MY BAR PIXTURES AND contents, situated at No. — Market street, between First and second, above the Bowles House. Apply to me, at the Bar-room, set S &d3 F. M. OWEN.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED AN INVOICE OF "Bingham a" A No. 1 Shirts, for asle at private tale, by S. G. HENRY & CO., sed Sted2 No. 82 Main street, A NEWFOUNDLAND DOG PUP, NEAR-somewhere in the neighborhood of Seventh-and Broadway. Any one returning him to me, at Wm M. trne's stable, on Market street, below Fifth, will be suitably rewarded.

Fine Linen-Bosom and all Linen

Shirts.

For

I'WO ENGINES, 12 INCH CILINDER AND S PHET One small engine, 6-inch cylinder, 2 feet stroke. Two Bollers, 48-inch diameter, 30 feet long, with double ies, 13 inches in diameter, with all necessary belting ad pipes complete.

Also, four run of Buhrs, 4% feet lo diameter, with all The above is the machiners formerly used in the Main reet Flouring Mills, and is all in complete order. Will also sell a lot of ground, 60 by 90 feet, on Ormsby

For terms apply to

sed Sl.dlm w2 HEO E. GEO. HEINSOHN. CONNECTICUT

Mutual Life Insuance Company

OF HARTFORD. INCORPORATED IN 1946. Accumulated Capitalever 96,000,000 00 Habilliles to Nov. lat. 1861, from Commissioner's kepoct. 2,734 581 86
Ratio of expenses to receipts for 18 years, la 7 9-10 per cent.

OMPANY SHOULD SHOW ITS LIABILITIES and ratio of axpenses, as well as its assets. People should investigate before insuring. This Company is purely mutual. The should investigate before insuring. This Company is the profits; but all the surplus is annually credited to the policy holders a dividende, is proportion to the amount of renewals, premiums after the first four years. Over two millions four ru deed and sixty-eight thousand dol are have been refunded to policy-holders in dividends or surplus aremalums.

wand dol are have been refaireded to policy-hoiders in dividends or surp'us premiums.

The surplus or profits from last year's business, to be paid in 1867, la nine hudred and ninsty-seven thousand eight hundred and eighty-one dollars.

This Commany has been refaired in the first of number of policies of any Company in the United States.

'Is accommy has permitted large div d ands, which have averaged 100 per cent. Furnishes insurance in all the various forms. A life policy by one payments, with profits. A life pulley by the annual payments, with profits. A life pulley by the annual payments, with profits. This of unpany issued last year 5,500 policies. Surely this is the Company to insure with.

JAMES GOODWIN. Pres. JAMES GOODWIN, Pres, Z. PRESTON, Vice Pros.

GUY R. PHELPS, Sec'y.

nilton Bro.'s Bank Building, corner cets, room No. 11. -- From 7 to 10 A. M. and 4 to 7 P. M.

WM. RYAN, State Agent,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

MY FORMER PARTNER, MR. L. D. PEARSON, the business statistical will continue to business, at my uld and well-known stand, on the corner of Teird and Jefferson streets, where I will constantly teep on hand a large assortment of I. C. SHULER & CO.'S Alr-Tight Metalic Burial Caskets & Cases Which surpass in style and finish, anything of the kind before offered to the friends of the dead. It will also keep ew hand, Metaline Causes and Castette of all other first class manufacturers, wooden Codins of every description in a style unsurpassed in the diff. I am prepared to furnish g, aves in the different cometeries of the city.

r or untry, at all hours, day or night, All kinds of COFFIN MOUNTINGS kept on ha J. C. KING PEARSON'S NEW WAREROOMS.

is city.

11EARSE AND CARRIAGES to attend all funerals

11EARSE AND CARRIAGES to attend all funerals

UNDERTAKER HAS THE SOLE AGENCY IN LOUISVILE FOR L. C. SHULER'S MET-LLIC BURIAL CASES AND CASKETS, and has for sale at his large and commedical process. No. 200 south site of Jeffers in street, betwoeden Comm. No. 200 south site of Jeffers in street, betwoeden Comm. He processed with new Hearse and Carriages to attend prompt y to all cale in his line. He keens constantly on hand a complete assortment of Coffin Moun large and Trimmings. (auxil deold/32 wtJal

Men's Napoleon Grained Boots. Men's Oxford Ties and Balmorals, Women's Laced Boots & Balmorals, R. M. INGALLS, & Male .

On consignment, and for sale low by

L. D. PEARSON.

Men's Grained Cavalry Boots,

suis dasima

Have We an Altar Among Us?

AN EPISCOPALIAN ONELAUGHT ON HIGH

CHURCH18! The Christian Times of this city, which represents what is called the "low-church" th of Episcopalianism, contains this Intended to show that week an editorial there is really no "altar" in the Episcopal Church. After alluding to the power of a Church. the writer says that "the term altar drags with it, by necessary consequence, the entire train of priestly offices and Popish sacrifices which enter the Romish cachings concerning the Eucharist. This does not suit the editor, who thus expresses his dissatisfaction: You enter an Lpiscopal church on some Sabbaih evening, and you may hear, as others did, a dissertation upon the Chancels of Ancient Churches. You hear altar, altar, altar throughout, mingled with allusions to the mysterious sacrifices upon it but no mention of the Lord's table. You attend the consceration of a little chapel in a neighboring diocese, not twenty miles from New York, and in a building of most correct and admirable ecclesiastical proportious, capable of seating, perhaps, one hundred persons, you behold a small, contracted chancel, filled so completely with an immense and massive box-formed figure that the worthy bishop finds great difficulty in squeezing between it and the rails. This the 'altar,' shocking to all ideas of taste and repugnant to all true conceptions of the Lord's table. You listen to the conversation of the ladies who gather in some of they speak of 'decorating the altar,' and shall the altar he covered with a wreath or left simple and plain? How common are such expressions, yet how much of actual or possible error do they suggest. Under these circumstances, ministers and laity alike so frequently using this term, a few blain facts so concisely stated that they may be remembered seem to us most timely. newering the question, then, with which we started, 'have we an altar in our churches?' we answer most emphatically in the negative. There is and should be no such thing, and in proof of this it should

"The word occurs but in two places in the New Testament where it has ever been imagined to have any reference to the subject. In Matt. v. 28: If thou bring thy gilt the altar,' etc., where the reference is plainly to the Jewish altar, the only altar certhen existing out of heathcuism The other is in Heb. xiii. 10: 'We have au altar whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.' This, even according to Romish authorities, cannot be referred to the Eucharist. Thomas Aquinas expounds it as signifying Christ's altar in the Cross. The Jesuit Estuis explained i as meaning the Cross of Christ's sufferings. Aud Cardinal Bellarmine admits that the spostles and writers of the New Testament. by the special guidance of the Holy Chost purposely forebore to insert in their writ

in the Scriptures.

ngs the name of an altar." The editor adds, in support of his no altar theory, that "the communion office stu-diously avoids the use of the word altar We read there of 'table,' or 'the Lord's table,' or 'the holy table,' thirteen times, and of the altar not once. In the Hourche's which are so many expositions of the church's doctrine, we read 'the table' swenty-three times and altar not once.' Certain bishops of the Episcopal Church were opposed to altars.

"Bishop Ridley, in 1550, issued injunc tions that 'all altars should be taken down, and that they should set up the Lord's board after the form of au honest table.' Iu 1569 Archbishop Parker charged that 'a comely and decent table for the Holy Communiou' be set up in the churches. So Griudal', Archbishop of York, set forth that there should 'be provided in every parish a comely and decent table standing on a frame, and see that all alters be utterly taken Bishop McIlvaine, aleading authority in the American Episcopal Church, as well as Bishop White, has also declared for "the in preference to "the altar." The subject, after the rough handling it has re-ceived from the editor of the Christian Times, will excite much interest in Episcopal communities .- N. Y. Post.

TERRIBLE SCENE IN AN ITALIAN COURT. -A fearful dramatic scene took place the other day at the Court of Asia at Chieti where the famous brigand, Sansalvatore Scenna, was on his trial for a long catalogue of misdeeds, including assassination, rape, and arson, perpetrated during the course of a long career of guilt. Sentence was pronounced in the usual mauner, amidst the breathless silence of all preseut. Scenua was condemued to death, eut. Scenua was condemued to death, three of his accomplices to twenty years at the galleys, and the four remaining left there. Not less than twenty large fast prisoners were acquitted. A hum of applause followed the reading of the seutence, and the judges retired, leaving the condemued men in the hands of the force. Sceuna appeared to be utterly stupefied and unmanued by the just severity luto Wilmington, under one fire', at one alip of the sentence; but on the approach of meut!
the carbineers to replace the fetters upon his wrists he threw a rapid glauce around him, with a sudden bound cleared the prisoners' dock, and, in spite of a bayouet wound hurriedly inflicted on his passage, by one of the soldiers, made his way to the window, climbed up with the agility of a cat, and fluug himself down in the street. A dull crash was heard from without, and those who had hurried out his wrists he threw a rapid glauce around without, and those who had hurried out without, and those who had nurried out of the court to see what had taken place, found Sceuna writhing in a pool of blood and breathing his last. The remaining prisoners took advantage of the confusion, and made a desperate effort to escape, but they were speedily overpowered and carried back to prison.

Was replaced by a wooden one, contities by some of the men of a former crew of the vessel. The leg was nearly attached by means of a silken cord, and lest it should wear out during the time of the rat's natural life, it had on a little ferule, made of tin. The sallors were not at all obliged to "Tommy" for this achieve ment in rat-catching.

[Skibbereen (Ireland) Eigle.

A PROPOSED PLAN FOR PROLONGING LIFE. M. Robin, an eminent French chemist, that their new hemp and rope factory at Lex-priated by fire Majesty's deelie in aid of the ington, Mo., was destroyed by fire at cleven foundation of the first information of the first Freuch Academy, expresses a belief that the period of human life may be greatly prolonged, and enters into an argument sound reasoning. He also gives the result of his personal observations on this subto show that his opinion is based upon ject, and proposes to demonstrate the truthfulness of his position by actual experi- Irving, Commonwealth, St. Nicholas, East ments upon animals whose lives are of short duration. His argument is, that the mineral matter which constitutes an ingredlent in most of our food, after the combustion, is in our systems to incrust and stiffen the different parts of the body and to render imperfect many of the vital processes. The compares human beings to furnaces port that a force of about 1,500 rebels have which are always kindled; life exists only concentrated in Cass county, Mo., and prepplace in our chimneys, leaves a detritus or residuum which is fatal to life. To remove this, he would administer lactic acid known. Citizens of Lawrence have arrived with ordinary food. This acid is known to Leavenworth to take measure for delease. possess the power of removing or dissolving the incrustations which form on the arteries, cartilages and valves of the heart As buttermilk abounds in this acid, and is, moreover, an agreeable kind of food, its habitual use, it is urged, will free the system from these causes, which inevitably canse death between the seventy-fifth and one hundredth year.

[Annual of Scientific Discovery. Large Artesian Wells — Mr. W. Mather, of the Siftord Iron Works, Minchester, England, recently read a paper before the South Wales Institute of Engineers upon machines for boring artesian wells. In the course of hie remarks he said that his machine averaged three feet per day, including stoppages, and that he had already sunk wells of eighteen inches diameter and 1,184 feet in depth. Machines were already in use capable of boring two feet in diameter, and he had some in progress capable of making three feet bores. He gress capable of making three feet bores. gress capable of making three feet bores. He would make a machine capable of boring s x feet in diameter to any depth, if uccessary. Steam power is used to operate the borer. It would work through rock readily, and the Weardale Irou Co. were using it to test the character of the strata through which the well was apply for con-

A Paris correspondent writes: "I hear the same complaint here among the young men that I heard before leaving Americathat marriage has become impossible owing to the excessive luxury that has luvaded all classes; that a lady's toilette now-a-days cosis as much as it formerly required to provide for a whole family." There are now twenty-eight National Banks in Indiana,

Improvement in Siceping Cars on Rail,

WAYS. No country in the world parhaps can beas of such railread and eteamboat accommedation as the United States. Our ferryboats and railroad cars have lorg challenged the admlration of European tourists visiting this country, and efforts have been made in several citics of the Old World to imitate as in that particular department of progress, with but very poor success. To any person who has traveled much by rallroad it is unnecessary to say that the comfort and convenience of aleeping cars are almost ludispensable. A new style of sleeping car was introduced on Salurday afternoon on the Central railroad of New Jersey, from the new depot of the company, opposite Jersey City, which for ele- That upon its couch like a mourner sighs. gauce and comfort surpasses anything hitherto introduced. Several prominent patentees Drinks not of my he art's sad melody. of various slyles of eleeping cars formed a joint stock association, which has resulted in the preduction of a car which combines all the excellencies of the old styles, with the addition of many important improvments. These cars, two of which will be atlached to every through train to the West, are fortyeight feet long, about nine feet wide and ten feet high from the floor to the roof. Each car is divided on either side into compartments six feet long, containing four seats, when not used for sleeping, and are all thoroughly ventilated by means of an apparatus placed on top our churches ou festival occasions, and of the car, through which a current of alr is forced down pipes placed between the inner and outer sheetings of sides, and distributed by means of small registers through the varione compartments. The air thus admitted is purified by passing between small tanks filled with water, which separates aty particles of dust which would otherwise be inhaled by the passengers. They are heated by an lugenious car, which has a metal plate level with the floor, with various flues passing hor zontally along the sides, and with small registers in be remembered that in connection with the each compartment, so that that the occupante Sucharist the term altar is nowhere used | can graduate the temperature to sult their in dividual taster, without interfering in any way with the convenience of their neighbors. At uight, when the passengers wish to retire to bed, they have only to unfold the heavy dam- are sent by any sudden or abrupt avowal ask curtains with which each compartment is supplied, and in the most complete privacy retire to rest. The traveling public will find these cars a most desirable improvement on the old style of eleeping cars. IMPROVED MANUFACTURE OF GAS. - A wellknown gas engineer in London propores that the manufacture of gas be carried on in the apparatus placed under the bottom of each

immediate vicinity of the mines. Here the coal is to be submitted to distillation in the ents, pursue her, drag her from her consimplest manuer and the product collected in the form of coal oils; the oil so chtained may then be submitted to purification from the nitrogerons and sulphur compounds, which are so fruitful a source of complaint when they find their way into illuminating gas, it being thought far easier and cheaper to remove all the ultrogen and su'phur from a gallon of coal oli the 1 from the one hundred and fifty or two hundred feet of gas of which it is the repre scutative. When the oll has been properly prepared and purified from all deleterions substances it is to be conveyed to the place where it is needed, and there converted into gas. The works necessary for this purpose need only consist of a few retorts and a gasholder or two. The retort being heated to reduess, a little of the cil is allowed to flow into it, when instantly it is converted into per, manent gas and carried through a pipe into the gre-holder of the ordinary construction from which the illuminating gas is supplied to the mains as berctofore.

A Wilmington correspondent of the New York Times thus writes: Og the 30.h day of March last I cecaped from Two days more in Dixle and should have been a guuine conscript and a masket bearer in the rebel army. Having been a resident of Richmond from the commencement of the war, and traveled extenmencement of the war, and traveled extensively through King Jeff.'s dominions, I had very good opportunities of seeing certain mistakes or bad management upon the part of the United States Government, which it is my duty, as a loyal man, to advise it of. I refer to the business of blockade running at the ports of Wilmington, N. C., and Mobile, Ala.

Enterprise of Wilmington, N. C., and Mobile, Ala.

Enterprise of Wilmington, N. C., and Mobile, Ala.

Enterprise of Wilmington, N. C., and Mobile, Ala. Fortunately, sluce my arrival here, Admiral Farragat has hermetically scaled the latter port, and Wilmington is now the place that demands the prompt attention of our Govern ment. This port is and has been of more im-portance to the rebels than 50,000 men would be to-day, and its value increases daily.

steamers are running regularly between Bermunds, Nasseu, 42, to Wilmington. The tunnare of each is not itees than an average of 2,000 barrels. Just to think of this! 40,000

A RAT WITH A WOODEN LEG. - Ogs day last was replaced by a wooden one, conbiless by

Fine.-Messrs, McGrew & Co. announce lugton, Mo., was destroyed by fire at eleven o'clock A. M., Thursday. Loss on stock, ma- England for the benefit of a scattered and chinery and building estimated at $60,000, for which there is insurance in New York offices $5,000; Adriatic, $5,000; Manhattan, $5 000, and

River, Astor and People's, each $2,500. The fire originated in the picker-room, and is supposed to have been caused by friction. EXCITEMENT IN KANSAS.-Accounts from Kansas represent that aerious fears are felt of a guerrilla raid upou Lawrence. Scouts report that a force of about 1,500 rebels have in combustion, but the combustion which occurs in our bodies, like that which takes is and that they intend to cross the border at two paints, but their plans are 'really un-

A party of ladies and gentlemen were recently the subjects of a remarkable and sad accident near Aprora, in the Sierra Nevadar They were crossing a ravine in a fonr-horse wagon, when a water spout burst in the mountalls, and rushed down, sweeping them before it. Mrs. Medbury, Mrs. Glenv and three chi-dren were drowned. The gentlemen, four lu number, were badly bruised, but saved. The

Up to the 17th of August not a single case of yellow fever had been reported lu the New Orleans hospitals or among the patients of the physicians of that city. Since the Union occupation and the clean streets which have resulted from it, New Orleans has been almost entirely free from its former persistent pest.

The body of a colored man was submitted to the embalming process in New Orleans, and an incision was making in the brachial artery, when the man proved to be alive. Two days after he was at work as BURNED TO DEATH .- Mr. Enoch Osier, o Putnam county, Iudians, lost two daughters, aged seventeen and fifteen years, on the 21 of iast month, from burning to death, caused by the explosion of a coal o'l can.

The proprietors of one of the cil farms near Pltteburg gave the proceeds of the oil produced on their territory, one day lately, to the Sanitary Commission. The amount was the sum of $5,000,

| For the Louisville Sunday Democral. WHY ARE MY SONGE SO SAD !

BY BURGHAM.

Few and ead are the songs I sing. And a sweet relief to my heart they bring; Like a bird uncaged for a short, short hour, To play in the breeze of the fav'rite bower. And why are my songs in sadness sung, And seem like a tear from a sad beart wrung When my face in smiles drives the clouds away, That love 'round the brow of my friends to play? They're songe of my heart-ack its throbbings who And its short response will be a sigh.

Few and sad are the songs I sing, And the echoes wild through my bosom ring. And they tell within there's a sadness lies And the smile that plays on my face of sies O, why do I sing my songs so sad When my words and brow seem forever glad? Come, sneak to my heart-ask its throbbings why And its short response will be a sigh,

Few and ead are the songs I sing. And like a dirge of death they ring. And they touch your heart like a tolling bell That lends to the air its mournful kneti: And you drink of its gloom with a lonely tear Which nahers forth like a pearl of Care; Like a storm at sea sings a wild, wild give My harp is tuned to a melody. If you ask my heart it will tell you why, For its short response will be a sigh.

ELIZABETHTOWN, KY., August, 1861. Courtship in Greenland. There is something exceedingly melan holy in the accounts which are given o the customs of courtship in Greenland Generally women enter upon the blessed estate with more willingness and less so licitude than men. The women of Greenland are an exception to this ru-2 Greenlander, having fixed his affections upon some female, acquainta his parents with the state of his heart. They apply to the parents of the girl, and if the par ties thus far are agreed, the next proceed ing is to appoint two female negotiators whose duty it is to broach the subject to the young lady. This is a subject of great tact and delicacy. The lady embassadresses do not shock the young lady to whom they of the awful subject of their mission. In stead of doing this, they launch out in praises of the, gentleman who seeks her hand. They speak of the spleudor of his house, the sumptuousness of his furniture of his courage and skill in catching seals, and other accomplishments. The lady, pre tending to be affronted at these res hints, runs away, tearing the ringlets of her hair as she retires, whils the embassadresses, having got the consent of her parcealment, take her by force to the house of her destined husband, and then leave her. ompelled to remain there, she sits for days with dishevelled hair, silent and deected, refusing every kind of austenance, Il, at last, if kind entreaties do not pre vail, she is compelled by force, and even by blows, to submit to the detested union. some cases, Greenland wemen faint at the proposals of marriage; in others they fly to the mountains, and only return when mpelled to do it by hunger and cold. one cuts off her hair, it is a sign that she determined to resist it to death. this appears so unnatural to us that we acek for the reason of such an apparent violation of the first principles of human nature. The Greenland wife la the slave of her husband, doomed to a life of toil, drudgery and privation, and if he dies against starvation. The married state is a miaerable condition, whole widowhood i a still more appalling fate. GIEL FROT .- Miss Jane Palmer, a young girl, some seventeen years old, reciding with her relation, Mr. Brigga, near Jarsey ville, Il'., was, on Saturday evening last, with Brigg's son, a small boy, ont milking, and the calves getting ont, ran down the road some distance and was followed by the two, and when some distance from the house a wagon came along, and the girl, thinking it was her brother, who revolver, she let go and called cut in God's mercy not to shoot; but he did three times, two of the shots taking offect, one in the breast, the other in the ankle. She is atill living, but the doctors think her recovery impossible. In proved to be a mlatake in regard to it being her brother, but was a man by the name of James McKinney, and the shooting was on tirely upprovoked, as shown by her deposl tion. After he had fired three shots he stopped and assisted to carry her luto the house and then went for a doctor, when he made good bla escape.

The Queen of England receives pay as u authoress from Murray, the Landon Pabsher. This little secret was revesled at the estival which insugurated the laying of the onndation-stone of the Albert Infirmary, at owners.

Such is the parrative of Bennet's guerrilla for the parrative of Bennet's Bishop Waltham, England, Mr. Arthur lutroduction to the Collected Edition of mad". Prince Albert's Speeches, of which Mr. Helps Prince Albert's Specches, of which Mr. Helps was selected by Her Mejesty as editor. We think this is the first time that a crowned head has received a payment from a jublisher. Five hundred of the thousand p unds paid over by Mr. Murray as half prefits from the contract was unde last spring a year, and of curso the manufacturers must have lost money at the present prices of labor and material. But the contract was completed the limit of have concentrated at Bunker Hill, about eight miles distant, across the Occupant, for the first three days, is now noderstood to be of last year, or one fith the actual assessment.

A HOTEL AT A RAPPLE .- Mr. Patec, proprieter of a megalificent hotel at St. Johnph! Mo., called the Patee House, proposes to put it up at a saffe. It is valued at $125,000, and tlekets will be one dollar each. The hotel will be a prize by fiself, and the household furniture will be divided into forty prizes. Twenty five thousand dollars of the money realized from the disposition of the property Mr. Patee proposes to donate to the United States Senitary

A disputch from Superintendent Mc Klesock, of the Pacific rallroad, at Jefferson ses were drowned, and the wagon dashed City, sistes that a band of two hundred guer rillas entered Tipton about nine o'clock Friday morning, killed three or four cit'zens and robbed the town. These are no doubt the name gang that croused at Rochefort a few days ago. They are probably Bill Anderson's

> Bur Miss Hautah Jones, of Dighton, Mass. now eighty-seven y are of age, walks two miles to church every piessout Sunday. She also visits her eleter as often as once a week, who lives three miles from her residence. Young ladles, could you?

Muller, the Eaglish railway murderer was arrested on board the English vessel Vic toria, in New York bay, on Thursday iast, and was sent book on the ateamer E.na, which salled for Liverpool vesterday.

In Oregon the capital question vote was as follows: Salem, 6,108; Portland, 3,864, Engene City, 1,588. Mejority for Salem 656. About every town in the State received a few Totes.

Calo's wool crop this year will be 19,-000,000 pounds-worth $15,000,000.

We copy the following from the Owenaboro Monitor of the Sist August. We fave faraished an account of the recent raid, but the details will be of interest to many of our readers : Owenshoro Captured by the Guerrilias -The Wharfboat, &c . Burned-One White Man and Three Negro Soldiers Killed.

O Salnrday afternoon, as unexpectedly as a flash of lightning, or a thurder peal from a clear sky, a band of twenty odd a userilles dashed into our town. The first intimation of their coming was their actual presence on Fredrica street, in front of the Court House. They announced their presence by the rapid fring of revolvers, sometimes fring in the sir, at others in the direction of fleeting citizens and at store and citize doors. The aftir was on andden and next poeted, and at the same so sudden and nanxported, and at the same time so startileg and terrifying, as to throw the entire business community in the rethe entire basicess community is the re-gion of the courthouse, together with numer-ous country people and citizens from other parts of town who happened to be in the re-gion of the public square, into the numest con-fusion. The invaders accompanied their firing demonstration with orders for all to repair to the courthouse yard, accompanying their or-Averill's Movements for the Last Resignation of Collector Barney, he courthouse yard, accompanying th lers with caths and imprecations skin to those nitered by our "army in Flat ders." One fellow Queen it Co.'s store, driving its customer list a few moments clapted to convince all that the veritable guerrillas were upon as. And many sought asfety in flight, both of townsmen and countrymen, and women too—some on horseback, some le carrilages and huggies but most of them, on foot. Amore but most of them, on foot. Amore men and countrymen and countrymen, and contact them.

buggies, but most of them on foot. Among the terrified stampoders were "Union." and "Secret," "To people who fived in the cutakirts of tows, and were attracted by the firing to apper chamber win-dows, the scene was ludicrona in a high de-gree. Men and boys, negroes and white people, horsemen and footmen, were seen while the fastest time possible out of towe ow could be seen a luckless horseman rging his steed with reign and heel, hav og neither whip nor spur, pureued by a fero-loss guerrilla, gabing on him with shout an-hot, ill at het overaken, he succumbed, su-chrined "a prisoner of war." Now horse n.n. u-mindini of the law of trespase adily threw down an intervaling inner of dathing madly through a highly prize trues, and over another fence, and octors and is way Footmen, white an ack, exchemed "the common walks of like the streets and aidcwalks—and, withen and hasty strides through inter ng yards, gardens and lots—now he oreconnoiter or to listen, and then ruurriedly on like one possessed. scaped, while many more were driven like heep to the singhter, to the Courbouse yard, ome concealed themselves in their stores, Sees, or other places of business, and falled report themselves at besiquarters, while gh weeds in rear yards and nacutilysted fots farths' and other Government officials man-ged to except. The Marshal's office was enrd, but very little dismage was done to it, to or three hundred people were huddled the Courthouse yard, as obsdient to the orof their guerrilla captors as the few has dred negroes who were gathered there a few days before were to their white commanders. The commander of the gang was said to be e famous Joke Bunnet, who esptured our later city of Hartford last spring. Bennet proposed to burn the Courthoure, and to se-care government mency, supposed to be in the bunks, and in default of its surrender to im to turn the bank, but was disaus election his purposes by the intercessions of R. Boyd and other chizms. They remained about an hour, and departed out the Litchfield coad. They entered only one store. That was the j-welry establishment of Mr. Brad-ord, in care of Mr. Zulouf, from which they were ordered out of it by Bonnet, or a heavier loss might have been anstained. A few horses The more applement items connected with beir rold remains to be told. They burned the whatfboat belonging to Masera Ayres & With this view Sherman moved on the night Ender, and a considerable amount of freight, is question, with 20 days rations and all his amproved by them to belong to the Government. But little Government freight was on had been withdrawn from the front of Atlanta at; its contents belonged to privite la- to Chattahooehle Bridge.

Among the losses sustained were:

of it was reacued by clizzes after the depart-ure of the guerrillas.

Lient, Walters, formerly of the Talril Kan-tucky cavalry, was killed. It is said he abow-ed fight, and was shot in the act of drawing.

his pistol.

No engro soldiers, said to have been the gund that conducted our Yelvington fellow-citizent, held as prisoners, to Louisville, were at the wharfboat, having but that moraling reregiment. They fired at the guarrillas and re-treated to the boat. Three are said to have made their escape by jumping off and run-ing up the river bank, two were shot and tarped, not knowing of the departure of their the we overboard, and the charred remains of one more was found on the boat, the fire bolng extinguished before the hall was conammed. Three negroes to k refuge in the ball, and were out out after the guerrillas left. They pleaded piteously for their lives, and de-clared they were axious to return to their

Helps, the Clerk of the Privy Council, ex-plained Queen Victoria's personal share in the local deplore the raid which has just been

A HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT.-A beautiful he west on Main Cross street—the whole emowered in beautiful shade-trees, and enrounded by perubbery and flowers—a most lessur retreat for the nufertunites for whom has been provided, and who are invited from it parts of the State to come to its argium for effige from their hopeless and irredeemable morance at home. The war has reduced the number of pupils one third—still there were say pupils the last session. The next session commences October ist. This deplorable war removed by death one of the ablest and most valuable instructors, the immested J. W. Jacobs, and another, Lleutenant Tabbott, is a member of the Nineteenth Kentneky regiment, in Louislava, who will return in his place at the expiration of his service next winter.—[Dauville (Ky.) Tribune, Ang. 26.

> NASERY'S INTERVIEW.-Petroleum V. Nase by writes that he had an interview with the 'resident recently, which terminated thus: "Is ther any little thing I kin do for you

"Nothin' pertikler. I wood accep a small disting. My politikil dans is well man over. Let me but see the old party wanst mear in the assendency—let these old in what mear behold the Constitution ex it is, the Union ex it was, and the nigger ware he enght 2 be, and I will rap the mantel of private life arowed me, and go in 2 deliram tremens happy. I here no amoishen. I am in the seer and yaller heef. There whitnin lox, them sunken there, were me that age and whisky her due there perfeck work, and that I shell soon go hents. Linken, score not my words. I her

"Oh! Angelina," and a young hortioni-turnt to his love one evening, "if you could only see my landella. How each day she derelopes new beauties-so beautiful-banging ver me so tenderly—no honey so sweet to the sete." Argelina and early fell to the thor ke an iron. "Villair!" she cried, "you love nother!" and swooned away. "Oh! I have tatte." Angelina and enly fell to the thory has a west to taste. "Angelina and enly fell to the thory has another!" and awooned away. "Oh! I have another!" exclaimed the young horitenturist, jumping ap and ringing his hands. "Oh, Angelina—don't—don't! You musth't for the world, Angelina—I didn't men it—I only meant the grapevine!" Angelina recovered.

TELEGRAPHIE

VESTERDAY'S NOON DISPATERES. Great Rejoicing over the Fall of Atlanta la Washington.

Operations of Rousseau's Forces. They Defeat Forrest, Wheeler and

Mergan. Objects of General Sherman's Late

Movements. Latest News from Falling Waters. Gold Closed in New York at 241.

Two Days. His Command Busily Engaging the Esemy.

The Tendering of a Foreign Loan. The New York Herald on the Demecratic Platform.

Rejoicing in New York Over the News from Atlanta.

Muller, the Murderer, Seut Back to England.

Raliroad Accident near Perryman. Five Killed and Fifteen Reported

Wounded.

NEW YORK, September 3. The lierald's Washington special of the 21 rays: There is great rejoicing in Washington this afternoon over the news that Atlanta is in our possession. It appears that while the rebel cavairy were operating upon Sherman's rear, that officer prosecuted his movements successfully, and this morning entered the city of Atlanta, and found that he had compelled its examition by Hood.

The transmission of this intelligence over the wires, which have been cut for several days, says that Rousseau has been successful in his fort to dislodge the cavalry expedition of forrest, Wheeler and Morgan, and has driven hem from the road. The c pture of Atlanta secures the possesalon of the whole State of Georgia, and renders the condition of the rebul leaders more des-perate than ever before.

ft was by an apparent retreat-one of the materly strategic movements for which this nabled to schi.ve so brillaut a result now. ft is well known that Hood added materially to his strength by the conscription of num-bers of boys and old men, who behind works render good service. Outside of works this very strength would prove a great source of weakness, and a terrible cost of powder and rovender.

The purpose of Sherman in his movement, which began on the night of the 26th, was to deprive the rebel commander of this strength deprive the robel commander or this strugges were taken. The locers were Messre, Clief.

Gr ffi b, Ridgly Griffi b, and George Smith. A young man named flead, who analytic escape but was captured and brought back, was resulting and curiling off his supplies, to force Hood out to fight, and thus, with his largely prepondent to fight, and thus, with his largely prepondent to fight, and thus, with his largely prepondent. derating force of veteran corps, to whip him in the open field. With this view Sherman moved on the night

> There remained a corps of observation to occupy Atlanta, la the event of Hood's shandoning it. Also employed to look after our communications and bring forward by railroad empplies to whatever position Sher man might assume. in an an fail owing order: The Twenty-third corps is the advace, followed by the Fourteenth (Damil or Vis'), Fifteenth (Logue's), Sixteenth (Run som's), Seventeenth (Blair's), and Fourteenth (Stanley's), in the order named, all making:

> orders, of Sheridan.
>
> To day we attacked the enemy on three different reads, for the purpose of making him develop his attength on the Charlestown and Girardatown roads. There was nothing but order, of Sheridan.

light skirminbing while on the Wincheste defined.

On talls road, early luthe morning, we attacked the enemy's outdoors, and drove his pickets in toward Darksville.
In the atternoon we made another attack on the same line, when the reheis placed a division in line, and charged, no doubt to accertant the strength of our party, so possistently appearance. Butween one and two o'clock the enemy' line had reached the outskirts of Martina-burg. At this time we opened fire from two ctions of Withers' battery. s'x gur; on an emineuce somewhat to the right of afirtinsburg from the rebel position. At this time the rebelliue of interty press-ed our right and center, where was deployed a portion of Spoonaker's brigade. On our left was stationed Col. Powell's brigade. There was not so heavy a proportion of shells from the rebels, and the shells from the Union game passed over the town without the first three days, is now nuderatood to be gradually withdrawing his force and making up the valley via Middletown and Strasburg. Our cavalry, always on the alert, may have comething favorable to report very soon.

There has been but little skirmishing in front since Monday, and the prospect of a buttle in this valley seems dimmer every day.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3. The Tribune's Washington special Insist there has been a tender of a foreign loan, and that it is under consideration in the Treasury Department. NEW YORK, Sept. 3.

The steamer Etna cailed for Liverpool toway marderer.

The Herald editorially condemus the Chics go platform, and advises McClellan to kick

The city presents a gala sppearance, dressed in flags in honor of the victory at Atlants. BALTIMORE, September 3. A train from New York ran off the track hat evening near Perryman. It is reported that five passengers were killed and litteen wounded. Particulars not received. CINCINNATI, Sept. 3. River fallen 11 inches, 11 4 feet in channel. Weather cloudy, Indicating rain. Thermometer, 80; Barometer, 20 25

CHATTANOOGA.—Persons living away np in "Gon'a country" have doubtless got rather crude and extraordinary notious about Chattancega. Of course they believe the surroundings are altogether barbarous and uncivilized.

To day we noticed in the correspondence of

To-day we noticed in the correspondence of the Chicago Times that the rebel pickets were within two miles of the town, and that the inhabitants had a very lively fear of being gobbled up. Such staff is all bosh and non-sense. Business of all kinds is trick and lively. Handreds from the surrounding country are streaming in and out of town every day. There is a continued rumbiling of wagons and tramp of feet couling and going acro at the magnificent bridge that spars the Tennessee at this place—firmers, with loadrd wagons, coming to market to self their produce. one, coming to market to sell their produce and pedestrians of all kinds, on business or pleasure, fleeking out to the country. A work along the levee would show very healthy indications of prosperity in commercial matters, and in the steamboat line. No less than five boats were at the landing yesterday. They ply continual y between here and Knox-ville, and are rarely, if ever, molested [Chattanooga Goz: tie.

HOW TO BAISE A LARGE ARMY. - 1. St f.incoln How to knisk A Lange Arms. — 1.31 Lincoin place a rife in the annds of each of his six hundred thousand office holders, and order them to the front. Most of them have had much experience in rifling, and all of them know how to charge.—[Albany Argns.

Heaven is in us, and not in the skies. We must, therefore, make our heaven here, and take it with us so as to make sure of it.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Gen Butler Arrived in New York, Nothing Transpiring on the Potomac Official News from Sherman's Army. averill Drives Vaughan's Cavalry. He Captures Flags, Wogons, &c. Sheridan Moves his Army in Pursuit No One Killed by late R. R. Accident

Capture of Atlanta Fully Confirmed A Remittance from California. WASHINGTON, September 3. The latest information from the Army o the Potomac states that nothing of note has transpired for some days past. Picket firing

Indulged in occasionally. It entirely ceases

arieg night.
The following official information was relved last night: The event are on the move down the val-ley, failing back towards Winchester. Averill attacked and drove Vaughu's cavalry from some point north of Bunker till to within six miles of Winchester, when his adrance was stopped by a division of infantry.
Averili captured twenty wagons, two haitle fage, and a number of prisoners and a herd of calle. He then moved towards Berrysville. Sheridan moved last night with his whole ermy in purenit.

NEW YORK, September 3. Gold opened at 340, and subsequintly toneb ed 236%. The decline brought into the mar-ket a large number of buyers, and the price chounded to 243 4 at noon.

The Commercial says Mr. Barney has tenered his resignation as Collector of the Port Wakeman or Samnel Draper are nmed as his probable successor.

The Post's Washington Special says that the pture of Aufanta is fully confirmed by cfilcial ispatches just received. BALTIMORE, September 3. It is now ascertained that no one was killed the accident on the Philadelphia railroad Three care were thrown from the track, cap-sized and badly shattered. The loccinotive and forward care did not go off the track, and the sections was caused by an open awiteb. Five officers and soldiers and two civillans were more or less injured, tive of them severely. Names nrknown. New York, September 3. Gen. Butler arrived here yesterdsy; his busisees bere is not publicly known, though it I ood to relate partly, at least, to his SAN FRANCISCO, September 2. A draft for $25,000, part of the proceeds of

Rebel Accounts-The Fight at Ream's killed. We cannot vouch for its correctness. Station-The Rebel General Anderson Wounded-Official Dispatch from

ne Christian Commission fair, was remitted

n Tuesday.

Spent, &c. [From the Richmond Sentinel, Angust 27.] The Weldon Railroad has sgain brought the inkees and the croskers to grief. Thursday inneual A. P. Hill assaulted the enemy's orks near Ream's Station, about twelve vorks near mrirg two thousand prisoners and nine pieces

We are pleased to state that our casualties we are pleased to sale that our cashalites are represented to be slight, though we regret to learn that among the wounded mentioned are the names of Gen. Anderson, of Georgia, and Col. Charles Marshall, of Virginia, the later lu the arm.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY NORTHERN VIRGINIA, ) August 26, 1864.

Gen. A. P. Hill abacked the enemy in his attrenchments, at iteam's Station, yesterday vening, and at the second assault carried his Cooke's and McRae's North Carolina brig es, under General Heth, and Lane's North Wilcox's division, under eneral Cooner, with Pegram's artillery, com-One line of breastworks was carried by the avairy under General Hampton with great illintry, who contributed largely to the suceas of the day. Seven stands of colors, two thousand prisners and nine pieces of artillery are in our The loss of the enemy in killed and wounded is reported to be heavy—ours relatively

Our profound gratitude is due to the Giver Our profound granted in the and officers all victory, and our brave men and officers R. E. Lee. engued. R. E. LEE. Up to the time the train left yesterday, the shiling had not been renewed. Brigadler General Spear, the notorious Yankee raider, reported captured.

GENERAL HOOD CONFIDENT OF HIS ABILITY TO KEEP ATLANTA-MORGAN MOVING TOWARDS KNOXVILLE-A FRESH RAID BY SHERMAN, &C. [From the Richmond Sentinel, August 27.1 Wheeler is at work on the anemy's commu nications, and Sherman is becoming nneasy before Atlanta. An officer, who has just ar-rived from Atlanta, gives a cheerful account of affiles at that point.

An officer from Atlanta says that our commander there no more lutends to give up Atlants, and no more doubts his ability to hold t, than General Lee does as to Richmond.

MORGAN MOVING TOWARDS KNOXVILLE. Richmond papers publish the tollowing dia-patches, dated Atlanta, August 23:
A letter from an officer at Greenville, East Tennessee, says that John Morgan left that point for Knoxville.
Seouts report that another Federal raid, seven thousand airong, with nine pieces of artillery, started from Decatur early this morning, in the direction of Covington, Ga.

THE CAPTURE OF MEMPHIS. (From the Richmond Sentine), August 27.1 We think there us but little doubt that Forat has possession of Memphis. THE ATLANTA MARKET.

[From the Petersburg Register, August 27.1 Flour and meal are quite plenty in Atlanta, the former retailing at $250 per parrel, and the latter at $15 per bushel. What is a little remarkable, prices are much lower at Atlanta than before the slege hegan. Beef, mutton and fresh pork sold at from three to five dollars a pound, whereas it is now retailed at from the to three dollars a pound. ue to three dollars a pound.
This is remarkable news to the people of fetersburg, who are compelled to pay an ad ance of 25 per cent. per day on everything the provision line.

THE UNMARRIED MAN .- Frazer's Magazine has this:

Whenever you flud a man whom you know little about oddly dressed, or taiking ridicu-lously, or exhibiting any eccentricity of man-ner, you may be tolerably sure that he is not a married man; for the little corners are rounded off, the little shoots are proped away in married men. The wife's advices are like the billiast that keeps the ship steady. They are like the wholesome though painful shears snipping off little growths of self-conceit and

A Benedict of an editor down East was forcibly struck with the above, and adds: Yes, the married min has a far more quiet au nteresting manner than the backelor. He is nore, subdued and docile generally, and shows due subjection to higher powers. When the "corners have been rounded off," and the "shoots princed (or pulled) away," he becomes barming very often, and perfectly inoffensive

The most enrious instance of a change of instinct is mentioned by Darwin. The bees carried to Barbadoea and the Weatern falands cased to lay up honey after the first year. They found the weather so fine and the matefor honey so plentiful that they quitted their grave, mercantile character, became ex-ceedingly prefligate and debauched, ate up their capital, and resolved to work no more their capital, and resolved to work no more and amused themselves by flying about the angar houses and stinging the negroes. - [Ex. This is a very pretty axtract, but v ien's Itua. The bees do lay up honey in me West Indice, and large amounts are a unally imported to this country. Danleep Sing, the Anglicized Indian rejub, has just married a prety little Christian To haloep Sing, the Agricus at invalated by the high price past for baron shoulders by the high price past for baron shoulders by the commissary contractor, who rook 14,000 pounds. Market generally unsetted, owing to the decline in selevos, orange blooms in her dark heir, Gold 2366200. Silver 2216200. Money stringent, Exsleeves, orange blosoms in her dark heir, with, of course, th usual gauze vall; a necklace of fine pearliand a bracelet set with dia monds were her nly ornaments.

An ingenious plan was hit apon by a arribations apon the people of this city. She claimed to be an agent, endowed by the Government, and she had papers to that effect, to obtain places for contrabauda to live in Northern families as servants. She was a shrewd, intelligent negress, keep and quickwitted, and asked only $3.50 per head, one-half the passage-money from Fortress Mouroe, promising that the Government would pay the other half. Some of the strongest Abolition-ists were taken with this idea of having a ne-gro of their own, that should be under their control, and many subscribed and paid. The money has gone, but after waiting for many weeks the negroes have not come. This wo-

Emigrants are taken from freland at ery cheap rates. The Tralee corresponder t f the Munster News writes

It was announced yesterday to the people of this town and its uelghborhood, through the local advertiser, the "bell-man," that one of our emigration agenta was prepared to aend, "by a celebrated line of magnificent ables," all parties desirous to emigrate to America at the second of the people of the second o abipa," all parties desirous to emigrate to America, at the reduced fare of five shillings per head.

olitely rendered, "accelerating the total piggey.

ARRIVED-Major Anderson, Cincinnati: Rebec ea, Cincinnati; Hazel Dell, Madison; Jewess, Cin-

DEPARTURES-Major Anderson, Cincinnati; Re-

neinnati. The river at this point continues to full, with but ve feet water in the canal, last evening, by the eded haif-a-foot, which is equal to over our foot at et water in the channel, by the pier mark.

the channel, by the pier mark. During the previons twenty-four hours the river at that point had fallen eleven inches.

The Liberty No. 2 is due at the city wharf to-day, aving in tow two barges loaded with Government

The T. J. Pickett broke her water-wheel shaft ear Malden, on the Kanawha, on Monday last. We learn that the Peerless has laid up at Cincin atl, where she will be repaired.

vater to Evansville. A ferry boat, named Esther Buffington, is reported to have been captured up the Missourl river, on Wednesday, and the Captain and pilot The most noted place for guerrillas crossing the Missourl river, is an island four miles below Rich General Lee-Reported Capture of field, Clay county. A party was seen crossing there om that port for New Orleans,

'clock in the afternoon. We learn that $35,000 has been offered and resed for the Lilly, a new steamer, owned by Dennis Long, of this city. The Columbia and Moille our feet water on Harpeth Shoals. blo river arrived at Nashville on Friday evening.

FINANCE AND TRADE

ouchers are still dull at 10 dissourt. For particulars of currency matters see specie and nk note list.

I REPORTED FROM THE MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE, FLOUR-Superfine is firm at $8 50@0 00; ex'ra family at 10@10 50, and fancy brands at $11@12. WHEAT-Receipts light. Mediterranean and Alabama

Conn-Is in demand at $1 25. Sales from store at et 40 and at retait et 10. OATS, 40-Cats are in demand at 11@ 90a. Eye is dull at $1 2001 20. Bartey $1 2002 for fall, Borren-Is retailing at 4:05'o. W. R. in firking com nands 40@45c. Indiana tub 40@43c. Bagging and Rors Sales to day of 15 pleece and 15 arg 230 in small lots, and scarco. COTTON YARNS-Sales at 88c, 90c and 30s for the differ ent numbers, 700, 600 and 500. COAL-Some dealers have dropped the price of prime Pittaburg to 30c per bushek Nut Coal at 24c, while others all hold at 3/c for Pittsburg. FLAX "sap- Sales at #2 70 per bushel. the hh.', as in quality; in bbis is commands from he to ic per more. Boft Yellow is held at 1923to. Crushed. An . 39@331/o. N. A. Molames #1 20 and Strup #1 40

cose, from wagon, brings $23015. Linsand Oil.—Held at $1 63 Poraross-We quote from wagons at 4348 30 and from ore at $3 75@4. Onions-Command $5@5 per bbl, as in quality.

APPLES-03 50@4 per bbl. SERDe-We quote Clover Seed at 015 75@1d; Timothy

SPECIE AND BANK NOTE LIET. Leion Bark.

NEW YORK, September 3-P. M.

Cotton du'l, unsettled and 5c lower at 41 "0 for midline uplands. Flour-State and western dull and 25: 250c lower; $10 25@10 50 for extra State; $11 15@11 50 for extra Round-hoop Ohio; $11 35@13 25 trade brands. sing dull with no buyers at the outside quotations closing dull with no buyers at the dustries dustries. Whish havy and lower; western $1.9021 $1, closing dull at the inside price. Whe topened dull and non-tnaily $20 to lower; winterred $1.25, Corn dull and $203.0 lower at $1.002 00 for mixed western, clasing at the inside, and one lead very choice do at $1.62, Cats quiet. and heavy at 93% for western. Sugar quiet. Petroleum nominal at 500552c for clude. Fork opened quiet and lower at $37 for mess. Beef Quiet. Lard heavy, Money 7 per cent. Gottl unsettled and lower, opening at 240, declining to 202, advancing to 242%, declining to CINCINNATI, Zeplember 3-P. M. Flour du'i, holders not being willing to submit to the cline; prices nominalty unchanged. Wheat declined 5c, but not free y offered. Corn unchanged. Oats dult at 17c. Barley dull. Whisky $1.78 with light demand.

The Franklin Bank of Kentucky sell exchange on Montreal, London and Paris, man may have thought that as white people had for generations been cheating her race, it was no more than fair for her to retailate. [Newburyport Herald. "Going the whole hog" is now RIVER MATTERS.

ecca. Cincinnati ; Hazci Doll, Madison ; Jewess, er mark, and scant three feet in the Indian chute n the Falls. During the twenty-four hones ending at dark last ening, the river, at the head of the Falls had re-ortland. The weather has been clear and Our latest advices from Pittsburg state that the ver at that point was falling, with five and a half At Cincinnati, at noon, yesterday, the river was till receding, with eleven and a half feet water in

The Ben Stickney, one of the largest, finest and nut complete steamers ever built at this place, is early finished, and will positively leave for New eans on Tuesday evening, in charge of Captain heble, one of the most thorough boatmen on the Western waters. We understand that the Ben tickney will make a trial trip this morning, leaving the Fortland wharf at ten o'clock.

The Lower Ohio is falling, with fully eight feet

the other day. The Kansas City Jonrnal save this place has not been guarded since 1863. There are but few places on the river where crossing can be erfected with ease, and these ought to be guarded. All, or nearly all the flatboats have been destroyed, and guerrillas have only skiffs. A little watchfulness, and these gentry could be kept from crossing. The Moltle Able is repairing at Cairo, and will be ready for business in a few days. She will load

The Mail-boats will leave the city wharf, as usnal, day, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, and three atl, arrived at St. Louis on Thursday, The Cumberland river is still failing, with scaut The Cordella Ann and Gen Anderson of the OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT. Gold took another tumble to-day la New York, closing £ 141 prem.

Daily Review of the Louisville Market.

ed commands 62 55cat 90, as in quality, and white 6t 90 colm at 20c and 10c respectively.

CHRESH-New W. R. commands 21 Ye, and Ohto Ham-

@t 50, Coffee is held at 23@55c, Hay-Ba'ed timothy is dull at 400@22; at retail $26.

96 25@6 50; Orchard Grass $1 25661 50; Blue Grass $1 25 @t 50; and Red Top at $1 50@1 75 per bushel. WHISKY-No sales reported.

TELECKAPH MARKETS.

241 V, advancing to 243 V, decil ing to 210 , and clo change Pair.

BT JO. AUGUSTINE SIGNAIGO.

Ou an humble, lonely pallet, where the glimmer of the stars
In a frozen night of winter twinkled cheerles through the bars, Sadly was a mother sleeping by the stde of all he By the image of her husband, by her darling brighteved boy, Dreaming of her son's dear father, who was on the tenied field, of battle pealed.

Now her soul was all but breathless, for she saw She beliefd the banners flying, theu she heard the Now, the peal of thousand trumpets tell the easet | Laon." 'Tis the child sgainst the father; 'tis the eire Now she hears above the battle the wild moaning And the curses of the dying that in anguish rend

Closer-closer, comes the battle, and she holds with fear her breath. As she sees the foemen grapple in the agonies of Iland to hand the dead fray rages-friend and for But, oh God! did'et hear her shricking? it hath ag-onized the dead her husband falttug-crushed beneath the horses' tread.

the cheering cry,
That the formen had been routed—that they had been forced to fly! en forced to a moment with a bear above wildly joined the cheering heard above wildly joined the cheering heard above ot a moment what her loss had And she wildly Then she waved her nation's banner with a patrice my boy," she said, "my country-in the

Still the banner she was waving-still she saw the When, amin the buok of the husband-she awak-foe's alarms, Came the awest voice of her husband-she awak-aned in his arms.

I HAVE NO WIFE.

BY AN OLD INCORRIGIBLE MEMBER OF THE BACHE-LOR'S CLUB.

I have no wife 1-young girls are fair;
But how it is I cannot feel.
No sooner are they wed than their linchamments bid them all farewell;
The girls, God bless them I make us yearn
To risk alt odds, and take a wife,
To clug to one, and not to turn
Ten thousand in the dance of life.

I have no wifel-who'd have his noso

I have no wife! I now can change From grave to gay, from tight to sad,

And in my freedom wide can range,
Fret for a while, and then be glad.
I now can heed a siren's tongne,
And know that eyes glance not in vain;
Make love ajace, and being 'flung.' Get up and try my luck again t

I have no wife!—and I can dream Of girls who're worth their weight in gold, Can bask my heart in love's broad beam, And dance to think it yet unsold;

Or I can gaze upon a brow
Which mind and beauty both enhance;
Go to the shrine and make a bow And thank the Fates I have a chance. I have no wife!-and, tike a wave,

Can float away to any land;
(uri up a kiss, or gently lave,
The sweetest flowers that are at hand;
A pilgrim, I can bend before
The shrune which heart and mind approve,
Or. Persian like, I can adore
Each star that goms the heaven of love.

I have no wife! - in heaven, they say,

Such things as weddings are not known; invoked the blissful spirits stray O'er fields where care no shade has thrown; Then why have a heaven below, And let fair Hymen hence be sent; It would be fue, but as things go, Unwedded fellows won't be content?

The Laws of Life.

Life may be a blessing or a curse. sciousness of physical and vital power, rated at a late hour, highly gratified at the which makes alternate action and rest alike aumorous experiments exhibited. luxurious. Others are launched into life in sickly helplessness; wailing waifs upon the waters, they saily sink at last, leaving betiind them only bitter memories, and, for their descendants, a heritage of pain.

For a healthy existence, whether of aniproper supply of light, heat, food and air. moral powers. Nature, however, is remedial, and her tendency on all occasions is and invigorating food cannot be obtained, she generously accommodates lungs and stomach to an inferir or adulterated article, injurious as possible. Were it not for this these results are as follows: peculiarity, health of body would be even rarer than it is at present. Generally speaking, man seems to regard all other kinds of knowledge as of more importance than that which relates directly to himself. "To know thyself" is looked upon as an unfruitful kind of lore, for its influence on pleasure and the accumulation of wealth is indirect and partially concented. lience, wo find men of more than average intelligence so openly violating the laws of health that our wonder is excited. Wholly disregarding the philosophy of existence, they wantonly saorifice their vital energies, and for the mad promise of "a short life and a merry one," exchange the sub-stantial advantages of a long and happy one, even as Esau bartered away his birthright for a mess of pottage. Turn where you will, this same reckless waste of life and health is observable. Even at the table, where men, it would be supposed, "eat to live," an artificial taste is nampered when a healthy appetite should be temperately satisfied, and "the staff of life"

A drop of lavender let fall into a gla is made to blossom into disease and death. Watch the eaters in boarding houses and hotels. Thrice a day men who are coustantly complaining of dyspepsy, gorge themselves with meats which they never can digest, and while doing all that they can to destroy their own health, wonder that they are unhealthy. Such cases are too common to be treated as exceptione. Over-eating, eating improper substances, sleeping in illy ventilated rooms, tight is recorded as an instance of the inscruta. As these are the only three cases of that afble workings of l'rovidence.

Would it not be well in these days of expensive living to study moderation and economy as connected with the laws all been cured by this process is not withwhat we can ensily digest, should be the measure of our alimentary indulgences, and ably found to be utterly inefficacious. One if we follow that rule we will save both in of these cauce is thus described : health and means .- [Exchange.

Two ladies who inhabit Wapping were having some words together on the pave- fingers amputated though it only hung popped out her head, and exclaimed, "Hurry,

FOREIGN SCIENCE.

The Academy of Inscriptione and Bellesettres in l'aris, at its last citting, divided the prize for essays on works relative to hermetical science (Iransmutation of metals) between M. L. Menerd, docteur de lettres, and M. F. Robiou, professor of his-Academy has also just distributed its prizee for pepere on the antiquities of worke on the history of Lorraine; the sec-Ready there to meet the focman when the trump ond to M. A. Forgeois for his "Collection de plombs histories trouves dans la Seine," and the third to M. Fleury for hie works on the "Manuscrits a miniature de la bibliotheque de PLANETARY BANDS. At the Parie Academy of Sciencee, recently, a letter was received from Father sently, a letter was received from Father forly-eight days. Dr. Institute says it is be assured him that there were no letters of the planets, such as those which are observed on Jupiter and Saturn, and from which he, in a former paper, drew certain complete immersion difficult, and secondly, England, he muttered to himself, "and secondly, in the first place, to the rigidity of the body, which renders to the rigidity of the lody, which renders to the conclusions as to the constitution of the Piercer-flercer, grows the contest, londer peals atmospheres of those planets—conclusions the lugle's call; the validity of which has since been ques- verance are necessary, and the tempera- here. I am come from the Crimea with distioned. Father Secchi therefore proposes the following experiment: Take through planet, and another proceeding from the oon, which has no atmosphere. Scarce by had passed by that vision when there came the cheering cry,

That the foemen had been routed—that they had the same fundamental bands in both state to put it on. spectra; only in that of the moon they will be very wide apart, and in that of the planet very broad, arranged in sheaves, like those we see at the terrestrial horizon.

A SCIENTIFIC SOIREE. The "Association pour l'advancement de l'astronomie, de la physique, et de la meteorologie, held its first citting at the Paris Observa-Still her sout was overflowing -- still her heart was toire a short time since, M. Leverrier, di-Forupon her country's altar she had sacrificed her rector of that establishment, in the chair. She had seen her country's glory-she had wept her M. Duruy, Minister of Public Instruction; husband's fall; When, amid the shout of victors and the flying Marshal Vaillant, Minister of Imperial Household and the Fine Arts; and various Senators, Deputies, and members of the Institute were present, beside a great many ladice. Of the meeting Galignani says:

All the rooms were filled with curiou optical and astronomical Instruments, and the gardens were brilliantly illuminated with the electric light and Bengal fire The wonders of science were shown and explained to the audience by M. Leverrier, who spoke of the heavens; M. Janin lectured ou Ruhmkorff'e machine; the Abbe Caselli explained his pastelegraph, which writes and produces the signature of the writer, and even draws and paints. A lady happening to approach, colore were anddonly seen to appear on the paper, and in a few seconds a magnificent rose was prescuted to view. Toward the end of the sitting M. Bianchi interested the audience iquefaction of gases and the firing of gunowder. He showed that the protoxide of nitrogen becomes liquid by compression, and under that form boils at a temperature of 100 degrees contigrade below freezing once congeal; in thie state it looks like

Now, if a piece of lighted charcoal be fection whatever. thrown on the liquid, the former will burn brilliantly, projecting bright sparks, eo that in the same vessel we see the effects of gen, known under the name of laughinggas, aids combustion like oxygen, and as the intense cold of 100 degrees is insufficient to prevent it from evaporating, its heat of 2,000 degrees centigrade at a few inches distauce from each other. In another series of experiments M. Bianchi showed that gunpowder, when compressed, gains immensely in explosive power. idges on this principle are already in use, and blasting is now effected in the Mont Cenis tunnel with great success, by means some it is accompanied by a pleasing con. of compressed powder. The company sepa-

COMESSION FIGURES.

Prof. Tomlinson, of Kinge College School, in London, has made come experiments by which he shows that different liquids, demal or vegetable, certain imperative condi- live red in drops on the surface of another tions must be complied with. There must liquid, expanded in films of fantastic but he a healthy organic commencement and a definite shapes, each of which was peculiar Animal power must also be developed by suitable exercise or a vigorous maturity is im- its nature as to afford a prima facie test of possible; nor is exercise less necessary for its purity. These experiments, restricted proper development of the mental and to those liquids only which would not sink below the surface of the receiving liquid, to harmonize conditions. Where pure air have now been extended by Prof. Tomlineon to liquids considerably heavier than the latter, and produced results as interestmaking adverse circumstances as slightly ing as they were unexpected. Some of

When a drop of sochineal colution, for instance, is delivered from a pipette to the glass, it will sink beneath the surface and x pand into a ring; after sinking a short ter stream upward in a faint flame-like late at two opposite points of the ring, which is thus, at its thinner portions, upward and then drawn downward into graceful festooned lines by the heavier porions, which at length descend also is parent ring, and festooned like the latter. In the same manner each of these rings lets drop two other rings, and so on, producing a most curious combination of rings couneeted together by arched lines. Sometimes, as the drops fall slowly through a its predecessor, shoot through it, and ex-

A drop of lavender let fall into a glass of methylated spirits of wine will expand ln to a ring, and, after passing through a couple of changes like those above described, will burst like a rocket into a multitude of festoons and small rings. The figure formed by oil of cubebs is even more remarkable. The drop forme a large ring which splits into two or three other rings, each of which breaks up into lines and small rings, and a multitude of globules descending and dragging trails after them life's morning march, and his early death of traumatic lockjaw cured by hot baths. fection observed at Brest in the course of the last four years, the fact of their having Nature is not so voracious as out importance—the more so, as opia tes and many suppose. Not what we can eat, but medicanes usually prescribed were invari- read.

The patien, who had had his left hand crushed by thefall of some large stones, had obstinately refused to have one of his ment, when the daughter of one of them the stump by two breads of muscle. The hand was, therefore, 'xposed to continuous ped out her head, and exclaimed, "Hurry, hand was, therefore she calls irrigation for eight tys, at the end of which time the process of separation had one."

Nice Distriction.—"I sells pepperwise a like the process of separation had which time the process of separation had broke out in a torrent of the wildest nished the requisite quantity of metal. A some of the wildest nished the requisite quantity of metal. A some of the wildest nished the requisition was to dip nails into a some of the common exhibition was to dip nails int internally, but to no purpose. Tartar setic was tried with as little effect chloroform was a lministed by inhalation. but the affection continued increasing usity, and death was considered inavit able, when the doctor resolved to try baths at a temperature of 36 degrees centigrade 1th; degrees Fahr.) and to leave the patient in it as long as possible. The first bath lasted an hour and a half, and the patory at the College of Napoleonville. The tient was taken out in a fainting condition; but while in, he had been able to open his mouth very slightly, and to swallow two spoonsful of broth. As soon as he was

> On the following day the bath was reto the resistance of the patient, who finds knew Sidney Herbert is sure to blame me. ture of the water must be carefully maintalned at 36 or 35 degrees centigrade. The and it is not until three or four hours later saint?

CURE FOR HEADACHE.

Dr. Socquet considers nitrate of silver an nfallible specific for nervous headache. ilis formula for a pillia: nitrate of silver. centigr.; sal ammoniae, 6 do; extract of gentian quantum suff. Two or three of these pills may be taken in the course of twentyur hours, vize in the morning fasting, the middle of the day, and before going bed. Nervous headaches that have issted for years have been cured in the course of e or four daye. Three or four of these pills will remove the headache which accompanies the milk-fever, and sometimes lasts as long as twenty days.

NEW USE OF PETROLEUM. Dr. Georges has observed that the emana tions of petroleum have a weakening effect on the muscular system, and cause headoche, especially in the case of nervous people and those who live in a confined atm phere exposed to these emanations. lie states that the latter contain a peculiar inciple which may be eliminated and is found to act principally on the brain end heart. Ether of petroleum may, he adds, be used to cool the tegaments during surgical operations, because it causes no pain on the bieeding parts.

HORSE REITUMATISM.

M. Leblanc, in a paper read to the Academy of Sciences, shows that the horse drawer and counted them. is exposed to three kinds of rheumatism, muscular rheumatiam, which may be with hie remarkable experiments on the either acute or chronic rhenmatic synovite. which generally accompanies a pleurite or which chiefly attacks colts. The ox is subject only to the first and last of these affections, with a variety of the latter la the point. If mercury be thrown in, it will at case of calves. Pigs and dogs are only ex- ceiving favors, and withdrew. L scarcely

CURE OF HYDROPHOBIA.

Dr. lissroger, of Lemburg, has published intense cold and active combustion. This a curious account of certain attempts made is easily explained: the protoxide of nitrephobis by meane of electricity. The fol- pigeon-hole, and, at last finding what he lowing results are reported:

On the night of the 14th December, 1563, fumes envelope the charcoal, and give a a mad wolf passed through four villages of new impulse to its combustion. Thus in a Gallicia, and bit twenty-two persons, all single small glass we see the strongest of whom, except one, were taken to the artificial cold that can be produce i and a hospital. Of these, thirteen, whose we ads tients who, having been fearfully luceratwere cured; the others aoon gave aympubjected to the action of electricity under the form called Frade to a, experienced such a remission of the symptoms as to enable them to drink and aven take food after the operation. But this remission lasting with increased violence, while on the other hand the operation could not be indefinitely repeated, owing to the prostration it causes in the patient, already exhausted by disease.

> REUXION OF NEAVES. The l'aris correspondent of the London

Lancet writes as followe .

Professor Laugier, one of the surgeons of important communication to the Academy of Sciences. In the operation performed on the arm, and in which the median nerva that perhaps instead he would come over had been severed, that skillful enrgeon united by a suture the two ends of the legation. nerve. Almost immediately after signs of F. was sensibility were observed, and in a few ever felt a higher plaasnre in good com-days more the nerve had entirely recover- pany, nor know better how to make it profed all its properties of sensation and motion. I need not insist on the Importance surface of water contained in a cylindrical of this case, which throws such a new light on physiological pathology of the nervous system. No longer than two weeks ago, in distance further, it becomes poised. The a discussion which took place at the Somore diffusive portions of the coloring matciety of Surgery, it was affirmed by several this category—were in F.'s estimation tha members that the regeneration of the ner-"trumpeards' of the pack with which he members that the regeneration of the nercircular cloud; the denser portions accumu- vous tabes, which alone could cause the recovery of aensibility and mobility, was the work of weeks and months, and could not immediately take place. Such, also, was the opinion of M. Brown Sequard and of MM. Vulpian and l'hilippeaux. These two shape of separate tings smaller than the gentlemen published last year a memoir which they gave the relation of different which is entirely opposed to that recently evening.
obtained by Mr. Laugier. The mem'ir of "lam! that eminent professor, read at the Acade-

> THE DECAT OF CONVERNATION .- One reads with some surprise, as well as great pleaswonderful. Chambers' Journal laments was one of the grand moments of his life tn our day. It says with much truth:

poring ever pages; on the tops of mounhighest occupations of life they The fact is incontestably true, that molern men and women are reading themselves into a compassively silent st race. Reading is the great delusion of the present time; it has become a sort of lay

(From Blackwood's Magazine.) An Adroit Rascal.

Towards the end of antown of that last ear of the war in the Crimea, a stont, well-dreased, portly man, with an air of considerable assurance, swaggered into the chancellerie of her majesty s legation at governesses he had been leading a life of Munich, notwithstanding the representations of the porter, who would, if he dared, have denied him admittance, and asked, in impetuosity: the initial steps in F.'s case voice of anthority, if there were no letters for Captain F. The gentleman to whom the he remained a prisoner. At the end of this France; the first medal to M. 11. Lepage for taken out, trismus and the other symptoms the mission, the minister being absent. Munich, and no one of the legation much the mission, the minister being absent. Though young la years, F. could searcely, interested in the case, the man was liberation. sumed for two hours, during which his fallen in with one with a more thorough in-jaws became unlocked for about half an sight into every phase and form of those velue—that he was a "rogue and a vagahour, but only sufficiently to allow him to mysteries by which the F. catagory of men bond," confessions which the Captain pos-

take some broth. The baths were continn- exist. Mr. L. was an actual amateur in his sibly deemed absurd, an act of surplusage, ed for a fortnight after, cash bath lasting way, and was no more the man to be angry as though he was to give a written declarfrom two to four hours. After the seventh with F. for being a swindler than with ation that he was a vertebrated animal and bath, a miliary cruption covered tha whola Ristori for being Medea, or Macready for neck and breast, and the patient left the being Macbeth. Not that he had the slight-feult as it appears to the intelligence of hospital perfectly cured after a stay of est suspicion at the time of F.'s quality, as honest and commonplace folk, he went forth forly-eight days. Dr. Leseleuc says it is he assured him that there were no letters to prosper and live luxuriously-so gullible "llow provoking," said the Captain, ashe cheated and deceived.

"They will be so impatient in it fatiguing. Great patience and perso- Then he added aloud, "I'm at a dead lock patches, and axpected to find money here to carry me to England; and these stapic the prism the spectrum proceeding from a patient, on leaving the bath, is immediately people at the war office have forgotten all wrapped in a warm blanket and put to bed, about it. Is it not enough to provoke a

> "I don't know: I never was a saint," said the attache. "Well, it's trying to a sinner," sald F. with a silent laugh; for he was one of those happy natured dogs who are not indifferent o the abourd side of even their own mishaps. llow long does the post take to go to England?"

"Three dave." "And three back-that makes six; a week-an entire week." "Omitting Sunday," said the grave at ache, who really felt an interest in the other's dilemma. "All I can say is, It was no fault of mine, eaid F. after a moment. "if I am detalned here through their negligence, they must make the best excuse they can. Have you got a cigar?" This was said with his eyes ixed on a roll of cubans on the table. "Take one," soid the other.

"Thanks," said F., as he selected three; Ill drop in to-morrow, and we hope to ave better luck. "llow much money do you want ?" asked Mr. L.

"Enough to carry me to England." "llow much Is that?" "Let me see. Strasburg-Paris, a day at Paris. Cawley might detain me two days; afteen or twenty pour le would do." "You shall have it.

"All right," said F., who welked to the fire, and, lighting his cigar, smoked away while the other took some notes from a table

this?" asked F "You can tell them at the office," said L as he dipped his pen into the ink, and cona pericardite; and rheumatism in the jointe, tinued the work he had previously been engaged in. F. said a few civil words-the off-hand gratitude of a man who was fully as much in the habit of bestowing as of reposed to rheumatism in the joints; and noticed his departure; he was deep in his heep are not subject to any rhenmatic of- dispatch, and wrote on. At length he came the happy landing place, the spot of rest to the weary foot-"I have the honor to b my Lord, and ha rose and stood at the fire As L. smoked ha reflected, and as he redected he remembered; and to refresh his memory he took out some papers from a ught for, he sat down to read it. The docnment was a dispatch deted a comple of years back, instructing her majesty s re-presentative at the court of Munich to seure the person of a certain R. F., and hold made to the Bayarian Government for his exthe tradition and conveyance to England. Then medical word, where they recovered in followed a very accurate description of the course of time; of the eight remaining paladividual—his hight, ege, general looks, tionts who, having been fearfully lacerat-ed, were taken to the surgical wards, four L now saw closely tallied with the appearance of his late visitor. He pondered toms of hydrophobia, of which they nlit-for a while over the paper and looked at mately died. Two of them, however, being his watch. It was five o clock! The first train to Angeburg was to start at aix There was little time, consequently, to take the steps necessary to arrest a person on enspicion; for he should first of all have to communicate with the minister of affairs. ed only a few hours, the symptoms return- who should afterwards back his application to the prefect of police. The case was one for detail, and for what the Germans insist pon, much writing-and there was little time to do it in. L., however, was not to be easily defeated. If baffed in one road, he ususually found another. He, therefore, wrote a brief note to the minister, stating that he might require his assistance at a later hour in the evening, and at a time not usually official. This done, he dispatchthe liotel Dieu, has recently made a most ed another note to Capt. R. F., saying famil.arly it was scarcely worth while try that perhaps instead he would come over and take a tete-a-t te dinner with him at the F. was overjoyed as he read it. No man tabla. If he had been asked to choose he would lufinitely rather have had the invitaion to dine than the twenty pounds he had pocketed the same morning. The cognate men of the world-and all members of tha iplomatic corps are, to a certain extent, in ould score tricks lanamerable, and so he accepted at once; and in a very few minutes made his oppearance in a correct dinner dress and most nnexceptionabla white tie.

"Coulda't refuse your pleasant offer, L. he was familiar at once, and called him L), "and here I am!" said he as he threw which received academical honors, and in himself late an easy chair, with all the which they gave the relation of different bland satisfaction of one who looked forexperiments they had made, the result of ward to a good dinner and very enjoyable "I am happy to have secured you," eaid

L, with a little laugh to himself at the funnel into the water, a ring will overlake my of Sciences, has been the scientific epigram of his phrase. "Do you like " Delight in it !" "I have just got come fresh from Patersburg, and our cook here is rather snecessful with some surprise, as well as great pleas-in his caviar sonp. We have red trout from ure, the brilliant conversation recorded the Tegen Sea, a saddle of Tyro mutton by Boswell, in the famous club where Dr. and a pheasant voil a voire dans! but I empromise you a more liberal earls in drinks-John for many years, reigned as a king.

Literate men aimed then to be brilliant wine!

Literate men aimed then to be brilliant wine!

F'e face beamed over with ecstasy. It that this faculty is so generally neglected have prolonged it! To be there the guest steeping in-illy ventilated rooms, tight lacing, immoderate drinking, and turuing night into day, are all violations of the laws which cannot be violated with jumpire. The rings and lines formed by benzole in manify makes the practice of medicine so general and as profitable. We faster a prefreshing or quickers of our own foolish, selfindiced ailments. Many a goor child that, nicked ailments. Many a goor child that, indiced ailments. Many a g of her mejeaty's mission, to know, to

The stranger started; the fresh, ruddy "Do you mean to spit on me, sir !"
"I am afraid, F.," said the other, jountaly, the thing looks ugly. You are R. N. F."

polite or parliamentary. At length the oor opened, two gens d'arme appeared, and R. N. F. was consigned to their hands and removed. The acquations against him were manidishonesty and franci. German law proseedings are not characterized by any rash took about eighteen months, during which nection was addressed was an attache of time the judges found some informality in he legation, and at that time in charge of his committal; and L. was absent from in the length and breadth of Europe, have el on signing a declaration-to which the world, so ready and eager to be

Joe Mayweed's Courtship.

About half-past seven o'clock on Sunday light a human leg, enveloped in blue lothes, might have been seen entering old Cephas Barbary's kitchen window. The leg was followed by the entira body of a Yankee attired in his Sunday-go-to-meeting elothes. It was, in short, Joe Mayweed, who thus burglariously won his way into the old deacon's kitchen.

"Wonder how much the old deacon made by ordering me not to darken his door agin?" solltoquized the young gentleman. "Promised him I wouldn't, but did not say anything about windows. Windows are as good as doors, if there ain't no nails to tare trowsers onto. Wonder If Sally will come down? The critter promised me. I am afraid to move about here; might break my shins over something or other and awaks the old man. Cold enough to freeze a poish bear here. O, here comes Sally. The beauteous maid descended with a mile, a tallow candle, and a box of lucifer

After receiving a rapturous greeting, she made a ronsing fire in the cookingstove, and the happy young couple down to enjoy the sweet luterchange of hopes an I vows.

But the course of true love ran not a bit mind to treat himself to a kiss when he of the real brigands. was startled by the voice of the deacon, her father, shouting from the door of his

"Sall! what are you getting up in the nickle of the night for?" "Tell him it is morning," whispered Joe Mayweed. "I can't tell a lie," sald Sally.

"I'll make it a truth, then," eaid Joe. And, running to the huge old-fashioned clock that stood in the corner, he put the "Shall I give you a formal receipt for hand at five Look at the clock and tell me what time t is," cried the old gentleman. "It is five by the clock," said Sally, and

> The lovers sat down again and resumed their conversation. Suddenly the etairs egan to erack. Good gracious! it is father.'

> corroborating her words, the clock struck

"The descon, by thunder!" exclaimed oc. "Ilide me, Sally." "Where can I hide you?" exclaimed the listracted girl.

"O, I know," said he; "I will squeeze inthe elock-case." And, without a word, he concealed him-elf in the cash and closed the door. The deicoa was dressed, and, seating himself by the stove, pulled out his pipe, lighted it, and began deliberately to an "Five o'clock, ha!" said he. him la durance till application should be shall have to amoke three or four pipes, end then I will go and feed the critters. lladn't you better go and feed the criters first" suggested Sally. "No, smoke clears my head and wakes women has scandalized the l'aris and Proever saw in your life. Men ranging down me up," replied the deacon, who seemed vincial press, and will very likely lead to from the medium size to little, with excennot a whit disposed to hurry up the enjoyment of his pipe. Bur-r-r, whis, ding, ding, ding, went the

> "Tormente i lightning," cried the deacon, tarting up and dropping his pipe on the tove: "what'n earth is that?" "lt's only the clock striking five," relied Sally, tremulously.

"l'ower of creation," cried the deacon. Strikin five? I has struck more than a undred already."
Deacon Barbary," eried the deacon's wife, who had hastily robed herself, and now came plunging down stairs, in the wildest state of alarm, "what in the universa is the matter with the clock?"

"It is a hundred years in the family, an I I never knew it to carry on so afore. Whiz, ding! went the clock again. "it'll bast itself," cried the old lady, hedding a flood of tears, "and there won't be nothing left of it."

"It's bewitched," cried the old deacon who contained a leaven of New England superstition lu his nature. "Anyhow," sald he, after a pause, advancing resolutely oward the clock, "I'll see what's going on in it. "Oh, don't!" cried his daughter, seizing one of his coat-tails, while his wife caugh the other. "Don't!" cried both women together "Let go my raiment" shouted the dea-darkness. But the women wouldn't let go, so the rom the sudden cessation of resistance they fell heavily the floor, he pitched for ward and seized the knob of the clock. But no human power could open it, for oe was holding it from the inside with a The old deacon began to be dreadfully frightened. lie gave one more tug, when an unearthly yell, as of a fiend in distress, burst from the inside, the current of air extinguished the candle—the dencon, the old lady, and Sally flow up stairs, and Joe Maywood, extricating himself from the closet, effected his escape in the same way closet, effected his escape in the same way in which he had entered.

The next day all Appleton was elive with the story of how old deacon Barbary's clock had been bewitched, and, although many believed his version, yet some, and aspecially Joe Mayweed, affected to discredit the same, and sinted that the deacon had been taying the experiment of tasting frozen cider, and that the vagaries of the clock existed only in a distempered imagination. Illowever, the interdict being taken of Joe was allowed to resume his visits, and won the assent of the old people to his

the open field with books in hand; young chance npon a namesake of yours, only that wax, and hardened. The material being folks have been seen stretched under-neath trees, and upon the banks of rivers, calls himself R. Napoleon F.?' the false bottom disappeared; and at the end of the process the gold or silver was tains, In the desert, or within forests—everywhere men now pull printed sheets low, and, rising from his chair, he said, from their pockets, and in the earliest, "Do you mean to spit on me, sir ?"

Coal, filled it with exide of gold or silver, and stopped up the hole with a little wax; or they soaked the charcoal in solutions of "And are you, sir, such a secundrel—such an assassin—as to ask a man to your table in order to betray him?"

these metals; or they stirred the mixture in the crucible with hollow rods containing oxide of gold or silver within, and the end oxide of gold or silver within, and the end These are strong epithets, F., and I'll not closed with wax. By these means the gold present time; it has become a sort of lay piety, according to which the perusal of volumes reckons as good works; it is, in a word, the superstition of the nimeteenth and if you should ask, 'where are you likely to spend the evening I should hint in tions of silver in nitric acid, or of gold in he city jall?"

At this F. lest all command over himself ver, which, being adroitly introduced, fur-

FOREIGN ITEMS.

An Ostend letter in the Pre urseur of Antwerp says: "There is no truth in the statement made of the arrival at Ostend of since the different annexations. The population of the carries himselves and the lightern statement made of the arrival at Ostend of the since the different annexations. The population of the estimation of the carries himselves. tly and l'aul Jones. The whole affair l simply a hoax."

Princess Royal of England, has painted the territory of which countries is, however four pictures of the taking of Duppel, which are to be exhibited at Berlin. All the English royal family paint a little. Among them the Princess Royal is said to be the most profizient; the Princess Alice, of as many communes in France as in Italy. llesse, the most confident.

- The Independence Relye states that : priest named Massart, formerly vicar at Louveigne, in Belgium, has been condemned by the Correctional Tribunal of Louvain to hree years and a half imprisonment and five years surveillance, for stealing silver plate and swindling. On a second charge of stealing silver, the same priest was con demned to fifteen months' imprisonment. -- A shock of narthquake was lately fel at Kalarash, a Wallachian port on the Danube, opposite Silistria, and a hurricane and deluge of rain prevailed for two hours states that at the close of 1863 there were afterward. The buildings suffered greatly in the sixty-four reformatories in Great y the earthquake, and the church, hospitals and a large school were reduced to uins. A vessel lying in the port was complately broken up, and others were considerably injured.

- The Charicari publishes a caricalure in which John Bull is represented so dread. With regard to the success of reformatory fully reduced in thesh as to have his clothes around him like a series of balloons, and latton to England, that of the 1,423 Protesthis top-boots a world too wide for his ant boys discharged in the three years, shrunk chanks. Behind him is l'russia in uniform, grown to so enormous a size as not to be able to button his waistcoat, and with an abilomen of unusual prominence, remaining 170 are unknown, and problem The Charivari, dressed like a court jester of half of them may be added to the number the olden time, clasps his hands together in astonishment and exclaims: "Oh, poor in every five discharged and still alive. Of John Bull, how you are reduced! You, who the Catholic boys, a much larger proportion formerly were so remarkably stout I'

- The Neapolitan journals still continue to all their columns with accounts of brig-for the girly schools in England show, on ands. Masini's band, a few days ago, carried off a notary and his clerk; that of Colarullo made five peasants prisoners, a day or two after, and is said to have murdered among the Protestants, and about eighteen them for having several times acted as among the Catholics. In Scotland the guides to the troops. The same journals also etate that Gen. Pallavicino has organized several bodies of bersaglicri, disgnised as brigands, and armed with muskets and moother in Barbary's kitchen than else- revolvers. They are chiefly Neapolitans, where, and Joe was just making up his and their duty will be to mislead the spies

- The Augsburg Gazette publishes some curious facts on the subject of popular in-struction in Leipsic. In 1831 that city posessed for forty-three thousand inhabit nts eight public schools, with one hundred and eight professors and three thousand done well, but there is a large number of ave hundred and seventy-six pupils, and slxteen private educational sstablishments, with eighty-three teachers and one thousand four hundred and seventy-seven scholars. In 1864 Leipsic has eighty thousand inhabitants, fourteen public schools. containing three hundred and seven pr fessors and ten thousand four hundred and fourteen pupils, and eleven private schools with one hundred and sixty teachers and nine hundred and thirteen scholars. - Some fear has been excited in Egyp that serious consequences are to bo appr hended from the unusually rapid rise of the Nile. The London Times' correspondent, writing from Alexandria, says, however, that there exists as yet no real cause for alarm, as the government are improving the dykes and taking all possible pre eautions against the occurrence of a flood The unexpected rise of the Nile has, indeed, been so far beneficial that it has been the means of irrigating the more elevated coton lands comparatively early in the scason. This circumstance, together with the sidered likely to be productive of a very good cotton crop.

elreus of Arles of a band of nearly naked away in about the smallest space that you vincial press, and will very likely lead to from the medium size to little, with excepthe dismissal of many officials in that town. was announced some days previously ry the day among the heroes.

at there would be a female boxing match, Moscs was something of a general, but that there would be a female boxing match, have been handed down on this score.

- A Dublin letter cays: Bray, a fashionable watering-place at this season, is to be clay."
the ecene of a series of revival meetings, chief been revival meetings in other parts of Ire. yarns, you would hardly suspect he is a land, particularly in Belfast, conducted by ihunder-bolt in a charge, and an emphatic persons of different denominations, and achuman syllable all over. "Goodness only knows," replied the old land, particularly in Belfast, conducted by ompanied by practices of doubtful proriety. But the Bray corvices will be con fined altogether to the church, and they the utmost, and to show what can be order and sobriety which have always special services will be conducted under he immediate direction of the Archbishop, who will himself take part in them.

- An amusing mistake on the part of an illustrated paper in Paris is recorded. A photograph of Baron Boust, the representaive of Germany at the Congress, was to appear, and a sketch of his life wanted to accompany it. In a gallery of Contemporaries the name of Beust was discovered and the life transferred to the paper, withleacon slipped out of his coat, and while, out the editor observing that, instead of the statesman and minister, he was describing a mineralogist and surveyor of mines. S far from clearing up the mistake, this difference of occupation tended only to magnify it; for on coming to a work which referred purely to mines, the French journalist exclaimed, "Quel homme! not only a this department!"

- The Paris correspondent of the Independence Belge mentions a rumor, which, however, he says he does not himself belleve, to the effect that on the 15th of August (the Emperor's fete) the Moniteur will publish a letter by the Emperor, which, fter recording the end of the Algerian insurrection and the return of the French troops from Mexico, will announce the reuction of the effective force of the army, and will protest anew against any idea of onquest or annexation. The correspondent remarks on this that euch a manifesto would harmly be prompted by the present sate of tallairs, and that France has no reason to proclain her moral and material disarmament at the moment when she gives examples of self-denial and disinterestedness.

tifty specimens of old Persian fayence. Broken dishes, mended, cracked and the better ones, well enameled, from 250fr. to COUfr. A bottle of elegant shape and fine enamel was sold at 1,535fr., besides the per centage for expenses. An Arabiau amp of enameled glass, of the eleventh cenmry, ornamented with flowers in gold on tions and flowers enameled in color, 850tr. The taste of the present moment is decided. ly in favor of ancient fayence, to the negect of porcelain, whether of China or Dreaden.

The Semaphore of Marseilles relates or they soaked the charcoal in solutions of the following strange story: "A tanner in this, who wept bitterly at the partiag, these metals; or they stirred the mixture in this city had a few days back returned Some say that the rallant officer was from his banker's with a pocket-book cortaining 10,000fr. in notes. Having to leave his room for a few minutes on business, he to mue for a divorce; but she thought not. placed the pocket-book on a table, but on She did not believe there was any enjoyed the run of the house, had got it on of her deceased husband-he only proposed ing itself with eating the bank notee. It she recognized the hand of l'revidence, and had finished one packet and was about to was disposed to submit thereto. which the the process of separation had proceeded most satisfactory, contrary to most of pop the question, took up the young lady's cat, and said, "Pussy, may I have your mistress?" It was answered by the lady—"Say yes, pussy!"

which the the process of separation had proceeded most satisfactory, contrary to lady who kept a candy stand, "because they carries'em to church and eats em, symptoms of lockiew manifested them selves; to obviate which, Dr. de Leseleuc your mistress?" It was answered by the lady—"Say yes, pussy!"

which the the process of separation had proceeded most satisfactory, contrary to lady who kept a candy stand, "because they carries'em to church and eats em, solves; to obviate which, Dr. de Leseleuc turbulent and administed opium selves; to obviate which, Dr. de Leseleuc of macerated ecraps of paper, which he and take them out half converted they carries'em to church and take them out half con commence another. The tanner immediately killed the animal, and cutting it

on of the notes, and obtain the reimburse ulation of the entire kingdom is now 21 17,334 souls; so that Italy is the fifth power in Europe by the anmber of its inhabit - The Crown Princess of Prussia, the ants, being superior to Spain and Prussia, considerably larger. The average popula tion of a commune in Italy is 2,821 tants, while in France it is only 978, in a given extent of country there are twice population is the most dense in the and the most scattered in the - au l Emilia. The average populae numerous to the square mile rouce and l'ru si , but inferior to England, Holland and Belgium. ly and Sicily are the provinces in greatest increase has taken place e last few years; next to which ome Sarlinia and Naples. The increase 'iedmont has been much slower, which may se partly accounted for by the wars of 1811

> Mr. Turner's ceventh annual report in the sixty-four reformatories in Great Britain, 3,677 boys and 1,000 girls. admissions in the year fell from 1,388 in 1862, to 1,209 in 1863, a diminution attributable chiefly to increased caution and more careful inquiry into the circumstances of each case by the committing magistrates. schools, Mr. Turner is able to report, in re-1860-62, 916 are known to be doing It are of doubtful character, 181 have been convicted of crime, 33 have died, convicted, making that number 270 are unknown; the reconvictions, same calculation as above, must have been above thirty-eight per cent. the same calculation, a percentage of reconviction of about nineteen per cenl. reformatories for boys give more favorable results, but the girls' schools are not so successful as in England. Mr. Turner states that there is no prospect of reformaories ever becoming self-supporting by the obor of the inmates. The forty-seven certified industrial schools in Great Britain. at the end of 1863, contained one thousand three hundred and forty-nine children under detention—a great increase on 1862. Of one hundred and fifty-three children discharged from them in England up to the end of 1862, eighty-one are known to have unknown.

Sheridan and Hooker. F. B. Taylor, ln Washington, sends to the Chicago Journal this about Sheridan and Hooker: I had the pleasure yesterday of taking leneral Sheridan-little Phil-ly the hand whom I had not seen since the morning after ho went up Mission Ridge. lie looks as brown as a nut and as tough as hickory, and not a degree of Fahrenheit cooler then he looked when he was hob-a-nobbing with Bragg's battery, and they let fly at him the whole six guas, showering him with earth. But no matter for that; he had made his record, and the rascals were only sanding it. There is no waste timber about Sheridan; ot much of him, physically, but snugly put together. A square face, a warm, black eye, a pleasant smile; a reach of under jaw showing that "when he will he will, you may depend on't;" black hair, improved state of the public works, is con- llyperion curl about him any more than trimmed round like a garden border; not a there was about Croniwell's troopers; and altogether impressing you with the truth - A recent exhibition in the streets and that there is about as much energy packed and that the fair boxers would subsequently go through some gymnastic games. The the Great were little; Cromwell was no gipolice, therefore, had an opportunity to ant, and as for Napoleon-why, what was step in, they not being taken unawares. he but "the little corporal?" Sheridan is a The Arles women have the reputation of capital executive officer; perhaps he would being the most beautiful in France. They be hardly equal to pluming a great camare of Greek race, and the regularity of paign, but, Jehul wouldn't he drive itl their features confirms the traditions that With a good piece of his head behind his ears, and hardly reverence enough for a Mandarin, he is not afraid of "the face of clay." As chief of oavalry he is indeed chief among ten thousand. Pleasantwhich will be quite a novelty. There have voiced, mild-mannered, not given to long

General Hooker is yet here, looking like anything but a war-worn leader straight from about the roughest campaign of the seem designed to pu' forth her resources to war. That he will resign I can hardly believe, and shall not be surprised to see him complished in strict accordance with the in the saddle not many miles distant. Give General Hooker afteen or twenty thousand charecterized her ministrations. These men, and he will handle them as Tecumseh did the war club-he will strike straight out from the shoulder every time. His splendid make, his soldierly bearing, his firm, elastic step, do much for him; he is the manner of man that soldiers love to ook at and to follow. Possibly General llooker is a little vain, his enemies declare ; but then he is as brave and full of fight as Lord Nelson. His sublime monument is built already-may he live a thousand years!-it stands in Tennessee, and is known as Lookout Mountain.

A Romantic Affair. In the northern part of Hancock county, Ohio, there resided a good-looking, intelligent young widow, whose husband died in 1860. Now this husband, who was very considerably the senior of his wife, on his great statesman, but equally great even in death-bed, had exacted a promise from her that she would never marry again, and after his death his relatives managed to gobble up his entire estate, leaving her not only a widow, but very poor. The aforesaid promiso to her husband sho regretted in less than a year, for lo! a young officer in the gallant Twenty-first, from the neighboring county of Wood, who had loved her before her marriage, renewed his suit. She would have married him but for the fatal promise, and but for a remarkably tender conscience, which rebuked her wheu-ever she thought of the matter. So the matter stood until the battle of Chickamauga. The young officer was bad; ly wounded and brought home to die. He made all his preparations, setting his house disarmagent at the moment when she gives examples of self-denial and disinterestedness.

Ancient earthenware being now the rage, the public-rooms in the Rua Dronott were crowded by the virtuosi recently, on the ecoasion of the sale of one hundred and fifty specimens of old Persian fayence. in order for his eventful history. widow.

She thought of the matter several hours, chipped, brought from 60fr. to 100fr. each; and finally coucluded to do it. True, she violated the letter of her promise, but not the spirit, and when she thought of the good the pension would do her, her scruples vanished, and they were married. Singular as it may seem, this marriage had a beneficial effect upon our wounded blua enamel, brought 1,430fr. Auother, of the thirteenth century, with divers inseription mediately; in fact, so rapid was his recovery, that the ex-widow began to think, in the course of three or four days, that the hope of his pension was growing faint, and well she might, for in a week he was walkng about, and last Wednesday he started for his regiment, leaving a wife behind

Some say that the gallant officer was not wounded at all; that the whole affair was deception, and advised the deceived woman returning he found that a tame goat, which tion. She had done justice to the memory the ground, torn it open, and was amus- marriage to benefit her-in his recovery